NO STRIKE OF CARPENTERS

THE 44 HOUR WEEK

Conceded to the Local Carpenters' Union by Contractors

This Removes All Chance of a Strike and Gives Assurance of Security to the Contractors Figuring on Jobs

The building contractors and carpenters came to an agreement yesterday, when at a largely attended meeting of locals 49 and 1610 of the Carpenters' union, held yesterday afternoon at Carpenters' hall, Runels building, it was unanimously voted to accept the offer of the 44-hour week which the contractors voted to grant last week.

This bit of news will be welcomed by a large number of people who feared a strike in this city. It means a big increase in the building line, for many who were anticipating trouble of some sort, and who at the same time were anxious to build, but who did not dare to start work on account of the trouble existing between the contractors and the carpenters, will now get busy, and a big building boom is now expected during the summer.

Five or six weeks ago the local carpenters filed a request with the contractors asking them for a 44-hour week and an increase in wages of four cents per hour. The contractors took

James McDonald, president of the council. It was one of the most largely attended meetings ever held in that hall, and it proved to be very interesting and enthusiastic.

The question under discussion was the acceptance of the 44-hour week which the contractors voted to grant last week. William J. Shield, national organizer of the union, and others discussed the matter at some length and finally a vote was taken with the results that all present voted unanimously in favor of accepting the proposition, and the question of an increase in wages was referred to the district council, to be acted upon at a future date.

This action on the part of the contractors and the carpenters means a lot for Lowell and the suburbs, for it does away with all strikes among the building trades for this year and probably for many years to come. The present district council being a very conservative and intelligent body of men will, no doubt, find a way to settle the question of wages as it has the question of hours.

Michael A. Lee, business agent of the union, is the man to whom comes a large part of the credit for the settlement of this question in an amicable manner. Mr. Lee worked hard to bring about an understanding between the contractors and the men and it is really due to his efforts that such a settlement was brought about, and in the other crafts of the city would follow the example of the carpenters and have a man as well posted and as good a worker as Mr. Lee to follow their affairs, many strikes would be avoided and general good for the community would result.

The working hours of the local carpenters which went into effect this morning are from 8 to 5 for the first five days of the week, and Saturday morning from 8 to 12. No work hereafter on Saturday afternoon, except in cases of absolute necessity when permission will be granted by the district council.

Presided at Meeting in Salem

District council No. 5, Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique, held an important meeting in Salem yesterday afternoon. The delegates from the different cities of the state assembled at St. Joseph's church, where high mass was sung by Rev. Fr. Rainville of Lynn, chaplain general of the union. THREE HUNDRED ALIENS

Demanded Naturalization Papers From Clerk Dillingham Today

Clerk of Superior Court Came Here to Take Declarations and Was Confronted by Small Army of Men, Demanding Their Second Papers—First Session of New Court a Hopeless Failure as Result of Misunderstanding—Many Will Have to Go to Boston if They Desire to Become Voters This Year—Alderman Jerry Connors Goes to the Court's Rescue

The first session of a naturalization court to be held in Lowell, under the new law, was held in Lowell this morning.

It was the most extraordinary session of court held here within the memory of mortal man.

Who presided, is naturally the first question the reader will ask.

As far as the writer could see, Alderman Jerry Connors was the presiding officer, for he proved to be of valuable assistance to Clerk John Dillingham, who had the time of his official career.

Alderman Jerry presided and made the speeches, Lawyer James E. O'Donnell, Squire John J. McClure, armed with a volume of Van Dyke on Naturalization, and a street railroad conductor named Hogan, who had a little book entitled "Hints to Aliens on Naturalization," furnished the law, while several hundred disappointed men who had asked off from work with loss of pay, thinking that their business would be attended to without further inconvenience, furnished the excitement.

All that Clerk Dillingham could furnish was first papers and then he didn't have half enough to go around.

The writer by the aid of Hogan and his "Hints" got into a cosy corner and in a few minutes gleaned enough law on naturalization to be able to get into the game until Lawyer O'Donnell appeared with a more complete knowledge of the law. As a matter of fact everybody was hopelessly mixed, not only on the law but on procedure.

Perhaps a little preliminary explanation is necessary to get the unsophisticated reader in touch with the cause of the trouble.

Up to 1906 naturalization by the police court was permitted but this power was taken away, and while the superior court had the power it held only two sessions a year, both at Cambridge, which necessitated a trip to Cambridge by the applicant for final papers with two witnesses, involving an expense of several dollars, not to speak of loss of time.

In the good old days the candidates for office would put up the money for naturalization but the law has since stopped that and for the past few years any Lowell man desiring to become a citizen was forced to abandon his work for a day, get two witnesses and pay their expenses to Boston or Cambridge.

This year, Rep. Marchand, at the request of a large number of French constituents desiring to become voters, introduced a bill into the legislature calling for a session of the naturalization court in Lowell. While the bill was proceeding through its regular processes, Judge Aiken, chief justice of the superior court, is reported to have announced that sessions of this court would be held in Lowell henceforth, in June and September. This answered the purpose of Rep. Marchand's bill, it was supposed, and the bill was withdrawn. Then came the glad announcement that the first session of the naturalization court would be held in Lowell today.

But like naturalization itself, the naturalization court as evidenced this morning, is not retroactive, and hence the trouble when Clerk Dillingham presented himself.

That Clerk Dillingham was grossly

LEAVE TO WITHDRAW

Report Filed on Lowell Charter Bill Today

Senator Lomasney, for the committee on cities of the legislature, this afternoon, filed the report granting the petitioners leave to withdraw. The report was put on the calendar for discussion tomorrow, and Senator Hibbard will move the substitution of the bill for the adverse report. He believes the senate will vote in favor of the bill by a substantial majority.

Rep. Barlow believes that if the senate passes the bill the house will do likewise, so that the bill may be referred to the people of Lowell after all. There is talk of calling an indignation meeting here in case the bill be finally defeated.

GARY OVERRULED CENTENARY OF HARRIET BEECHER STOWE'S BIRTH TO BE CELEBRATED JUNE 14

He Made Argument for Stability of Steel Prices

NEW YORK, June 5.—The argument with which Judge Albert H. Gary, chairman of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation, addressed iron and steel manufacturers when he had here as guests at a luncheon a week ago today to discuss the independent action of the Republic Iron and Steel company in reducing prices, became public today when Judge Gary made public the text of his speech, and threw more light upon what occurred behind the closed doors of the dining-room at the Metropolitan club where the conference was held.

Judge Gary argued for continued cooperation among the steel makers and for stability in prices, but his apparent wishes on the price question were overruled by a general decision to meet the calls of the Republic company. In the course of his remarks, Judge Gary touched upon the possibility of wage reductions, the value of fair dealing and frankness among the manufacturers, and the rights and duties of great corporations in view of the recent Supreme court decision in the Standard Oil case.

Wants Stability of Prices
"I have advocated, and shall always advocate, so long as I believe I have a right to do so," said Judge Gary, "the stability of prices, the regularity of business conduct on the part of all that is calculated to recognize and advance the interests of others."

"I have urged you to remember and I again call attention to the fact that when you make substantial reductions in your prices, if you reduce to a price that is unfair and unreasonable and you make so small a profit that it does not yield you a fair return on your investment and your risk, you at least place for consideration before every one the possibility of reducing the cost of production, including prominently, if not principally, the wages which you are paying to the men employed in your plant. Do not forget that the laboring men—the employees of the corporations—have more at risk, when these questions are considered of reducing prices below what is reasonable and fair, than the employer. You have no right to run the risk of being compelled to put their wages below what they ought to be under the present circumstances, gentlemen, that whatever may be done, or whatever may happen as a result of present conditions, you will not reduce the wages of your employees until you feel it is an absolute necessity to do so."

The Republic's Bombshell
Referring to the bombshell which the Republic company threw into the steel market by reducing prices, Judge Gary said: "We are confronted with a very serious and disagreeable problem. It is not for me to criticize men nor to pass judgment on the motives of men. Whether people have changed their minds suddenly or are actuated by motives of cupidity or motives of necessity is not for me to say. One thing we know that one of the leading iron and steel companies hitherto joining in our councils, learning from us our intentions, our business, our methods, our clients, our customers, everything of benefit and interest for one to know concerning his neighbor, has suddenly, for reasons considered good by those in charge, given notice that for the present at least it is not desirable to co-operate with us. I would not expect or ask anyone to do anything he believed wrong, legally or morally, but on the other hand, gentlemen, if anyone who has been co-operating in a lawful way, not in secret, but under conditions well known and frequently exposed by all of us, suddenly changes his position and believes it is for his pecuniary interest for the time being to withdraw from associating with us and declines to give us any information concerning what he is doing or proposes to do, leaving himself free to go to your customers and mine and get the business for himself, regardless of price, and simply for the purpose of filling his mill temporarily and securing for himself a customer who has been your customer or mine, then I do not hesitate to say that, so far as I am concerned, I am perfectly willing to let him stand outside of the circle of intercourse and friendly conversation and open and above-board fair dealing and frankness in business for if I have sufficient influence, it shall not in the least affect the relations of all the rest of us."

Wants Friendly Relations
"In my opinion it is highly important for the long future that we continue our relations of friendship and open and frank expression with reference to what we are doing. Now, I do not know the feeling of the rest of you. I do not know what you are disposed to do. I think that so far as we are concerned we would be largely influenced by the action of the others. And while insisting upon the position from which I have never varied, I would not under any circumstances make any agreement, express or implied, direct or indirect, to maintain certain prices, to keep away from certain territory, to divide territory, to restrict output or to make any agreement of any sort or description with you or any of you, because, as I understand the law, I have no right to do it, yet at the same time, I would do what I have always said I would do, I would tell you and each of you at any time exactly what we were doing. I would give you the name of our customer, I would tell you what prices we were charging, I would give you any information concerning our business, concerning our mills, concerning our clients, concerning ourselves that you wanted to have, so long as you have the same disposition toward me."

"On the other hand, if it is your opinion that the time for co-operation has gone by or that it should be suspended, then we ought to find that out and we will all go our way, parting as friends, but at the same time separating entirely, which means that we will simply go upon our way, doing our own business in our own way, when, low and where we please."

"When demand was great and the capacity was insufficient, we have quoted prices from going higher, which is just as important as to prevent them from going too low. One is just as important as the other. We have never stood for unreasonably high prices any more than we are willing to have unreasonably low prices. What we advocate is stability of prices. We know our customers like that. We know it is better for the mills, we know it is better for the employees in every way. That is why I think it is of great importance for each of us to know all the time what the rest are doing."

In discussing, at the outset of his address, the Standard Oil decision, Judge Gary said that he disagreed with the statement of some people to the effect that the Supreme court had modified the Sherman law and had read into that act the word "unreasonable." He said he was inclined to think that even if that were true, the adoption of that view and conduct based upon it might result in very great harm to the business interests of the country generally.

"The Supreme court, instead of saying that there may be reasonable restriction of trade or reasonably monopolies," he believed, "intended to say that in the application of the law to the facts in a case there must be reasonable restriction."

"If the business interests of this country generally should reach the conclusion, by reason of the decision in the Standard Oil case, that the Sherman act is not of any importance so far as our future conduct is concerned, that we are not obligated to go ahead on the right lines that we are relieved from the necessity of conducting ourselves in such a way as to evidence a regard for the interests of those with whom we come in contact—with our neighbors, with our customers, with our employees, with the public generally—that we may go on step by step, becoming more and more unreasonable instead of better, we shall find that as a result and in the long run we will suffer by reason of such an attitude."

NEW YORK, June 5.—The centenary of the birth of Harriet Beecher Stowe will be celebrated in many sections of the country June 14. The relatives and admirers of the celebrated author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and other books will hold special memorial services in different cities. Particular attention will be given to honoring Mrs. Stowe's memory in cities where she spent portions of her long, active life, these being Andover, Mass., Hartford, Conn., Cincinnati, Mass., and New York.

NORTH CHELMSFORD
The Feast of Pentecost was observed yesterday in St. John's church and first communion was received by a class of 15 boys and 14 girls between the ages of 8 and 14 years. Both masses were celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Schenck. At the second mass the children received communion and they occupied the front pews in the main part of the church. The girls were dressed in white with veils and the boys wore black suits with a white shirt and tie. Previous to the mass the children sang hymns in honor of the blessed sacrament, which added to the impressiveness of the ceremony.

The communion of the boys of the Trinitarian school who received their communion yesterday morning. The church was crowded, as many of the parents were in attendance to receive communion with the children. Fr. Schenck spoke to the children on the importance of making a good first communion and to always remember the day they received the body and blood of Christ in the Holy Eucharist for the first time, for it was the most important day of all days. He urged the children to lead good, holy and pure lives for he knew there was never a class of children better instructed than the present class by the good Sisters of Notre Dame and Fr. Doherty. A sermon on the gospel of the day was preached. Announcement was made that the devotion of the forty hours would open next Sunday morning at the 10 o'clock mass when a procession in honor of the blessed sacrament will take place.

The time for making the Easter duty was closed last Sunday, and Fr. Schenck hoped all those who have not attended to this important duty would do so at once. He has been pleased with the attendance of the parishioners but hoped that all who have not done so would not let the duty go by.

The members of the parish were also requested to attend a meeting in the church, Tuesday night at 7:30 to make arrangements for the annual picnic. Yesterday afternoon the children who received first communion in the morning were taken to the picnic at the home of Mrs. Schenck.

with John J. Jewett, a young Boston publisher, to bring it out in book form. This contract was dated March 13, 1852, and the book was published March 20 of the same year. By the terms of this contract Mrs. Stowe was to receive a 14 per cent. royalty on all copies sold, the first royalty check was for $10,000. She must have had half profits, but the future of the book was considered so doubtful, and the risk in its publication so great that her husband and other advisers urged her to accept the 14 per cent. offer and incur no risk. Professor Stowe, her husband, is reported to have said: "It is a very unpopular scheme, and I doubt if the book has a large sale. I shall be abundantly satisfied if you get enough out of it to buy a new silk dress." It has been estimated that over a million copies have been sold in the United States and over a million and a half in Great Britain and the colonies. It has been translated forty times, and we may safely estimate that in all 2,000,000 copies of the book have been sold. If Mrs. Stowe had received 14 per cent. on this enormous circulation the net sum of $99 for her portion of the book she would have had, before it was completed in the National Era she signed a contract received but little.

WORCESTER, June 5.—An automobile joy ride, headed by John F. Ryan, aged 59, of 115 Eastern avenue, and father of three sons, and one of the best known building contractors of Worcester, was brought to a sudden end at 5 o'clock yesterday morning against a telephone pole in South Quinsigamond, Shrewsbury, with the following result:

MISS KATHERINE RYAN, aged 19, of 277 Pleasant street, skull crushed and killed instantly.

Miss Marguerite Ryan, aged 39, of 277 Pleasant street, back broken at eighth and ninth vertebrae, paralyzed from abdomen down; will die.

Mrs. William L. Rousseau, aged 35, of 22 Portland street, injured about chest and back.

John F. Ryan, aged 59, of 115 Eastern avenue, scalp wound and cut under left eye.

C. J. Breen, aged 35, of Detroit, guest at Bay State house, left knee injured.

Miss Marguerite Ryan is in the City hospital, where it is said she cannot recover, but the other injured are able to be around town.

The Ryan girls are daughters of Dennis Ryan of 277 Pleasant street and are well known around town, as is Mrs. Rousseau, who has been employed as a waitress in Putnam & Thurston's restaurant.

Stories of the Accident

The fatality brought to an end a night of hilarity which was started about midnight from Worcester. The members of the party who are in a condition to talk will say very little about what preceded the accident and the stories about that conflict.

During the excitement immediately following the crash against the pole, Quarn, who owned and operated the big six seater touring car in which the party was riding, told one of the rescue party that he was taking them down to Edgemoor, a pleasure resort at the south end of Lake Quinsigamond, while he is quoted by others as saying the crowd was going to his summer cottage near the dam in Lake Quinsigamond.

ONE MAN KILLED

Several Injured in Run-away Accident

YOSEMITE, Calif., June 5.—In a stage coach runaway in the Yosemite valley late Saturday evening, a tourist was instantly killed and three women were seriously injured. Seven other persons sustained minor injuries.

Dead
RUBEN S. LEISENBERG, Alhambra, Penn., was killed.

Seriously Injured
Miss Martha Webber of Boston, arm broken.

Miss Diezenderfer of Boston, shoulder broken.

Mrs. A. Jackson of New York, lacerated eye.

The injuries sustained by the others were considerable. All were tourists. The accident occurred on a steep grade between the Big Tree grove at Wawona and the floor of the Yosemite Valley.

The party numbering 40 persons, and occupying four big mountain stage coaches, left camp Ahwahnee early Saturday morning for the trip to Awan, which was made safely.

At a steep grade the horses on the front stage became frightened and unmanageable. The brakes failed to hold and the team galloped down the winding roadway, with the stage swinging from side to side between a high bank and a sharp precipice, while the passengers screamed.

Convinced that he would not stop the animals the driver finally turned them straight into the wall of the cliff. The stage turned over completely and several of the passengers were caught beneath it. Leisenberg was thrown clear, but struck on his head and was instantly killed.

The stages following carried the injured and Leisenberg's body to camp Ahwahnee.

BALLOON RACE

Was Won by the University of Pennsylvania

BOSTON, June 5.—The University of Pennsylvania entry in the balloon Philadelphia II was yesterday declared to be the official winner of the first intercollegiate balloon race in history. Pilot A. F. Atherholt and his aid, George A. Richardson, in the prize balloon, traveled 110 miles and remained in the air a little over seven hours, winning both cups for duration and distance. Their nearest competitor was the Williams college balloon, Stevens 27, which won the 2d prize distance, covering 66 miles in 4 hours and 20 minutes. The "Boston" balloon, an entry from Dartmouth college, did not figure in the prizes.

Each of the balloons landed safely Saturday night in various parts of Massachusetts. All started from North Adams Saturday afternoon. Not one of the six passengers suffered the least anxiety, although the race was most sensational from start to finish. Each of the balloonists landed without a scratch. Yesterday the occupants of the balloons rendered reports of their trips. Two of the men who landed in West Peabody spent the night in an improvised camp in a field and did not report to civilization until early yesterday morning. The stories of the balloonists will make aeronautical history. The "Philadelphia II" drifted over the city of Fitchburg at a height of 12,000 feet, and the occupants could hear nothing but the barking of a dog. It was this balloon which was caught in a whirlpool of wind and ascended at a most rapid rate. The passengers were somewhat frightened for a few minutes, but when the balloon drifted out of the strong air current and descended fully as rapidly as it arose, the pilot realized all was well and continued the race. Pilot Atherholt of the winning balloon yesterday told a reporter of his experiences. "The wind was exceptionally tricky," he said. "We were driven in all directions, but we threw out much ballast. The sailing was grand—it was sensational. It was real racing. We could have stayed up all night and kept sailing and drifting as long as the gas bag held out. It was a great time and the experience was good for any balloonist."

Kenneth C. Price, aid to H. P. Eacerman of the Williams college entry, "Stevens 27," arrived back at Williams college yesterday afternoon. His balloon landed in Paxton, 60 miles from the start. To a newspaper man he said: "The flying is most exhilarating. It is the greatest sporting game I ever entered. One who remains on land and participates in athletic events, even in a hard fought football match, cannot compare his experiences with that of a balloonist. Saturday was an ideal day. We ascended easily and sailed in a northeast and then southeast current. We were high above the other contestants. In one place the clouds gave us much trouble, when we practically flew upward to a height of 12,000 feet. We were certainly sailing some. I tell you it is great. I wouldn't miss another race for love or money."

STRUCK BY CAR
DORCHESTER LAD WAS RIDING A BICYCLE

BOSTON, June 5.—Alfred Cohen, 12 years old, of 213 Columbia road, Dorchester, was struck by an automobile owned and operated by James Hannon of 21 Glenway street, Dorchester, while riding a bicycle on Columbia road early last evening. The boy suffered internal injuries. It is feared.

Witnesses of the accident told the police Hannon was not to blame. The boy saw the automobile coming and lost his head, ending by steering directly into the automobile's path. A woman in a passing automobile added to the excitement by screaming and then fainting when she saw the boy struck.

Though the Cohen family were seated in the front room of their apartment and the accident occurred directly outside, none of the family knew about it until a boy ran in saying several men were bringing Alfred up "dead." Mrs. Cohen fainted.

MATRIMONIAL

Miss Helen Holmstedt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Holmstedt, and Mr. Huntington Sanford of Dorchester were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 125 Fifth avenue.

The bride was becomingly attired in white silk and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helma Holmstedt, who wore white voile with blue trimmings. The best man was Mr. E. T. Clark of Brooklyn, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Billings of the Unitarian church. The house was prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts.

A dainty lunch was served, after which they left for an extended wedding tour, including Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will be at home after July 1 at Belmont, Mass.

CHICAGO, June 5.—"I am going to meet High McIntosh, the promoter, in London," said Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, just before he left for New York. "If he will give me $20,000 to meet Bombardier Wells over any distance I will sign the articles on the spot."

SIXTY INDIANS

Have Joined General Mosby's Force

SAN DIEGO, CAL., June 5.—A band of over 60 Indians that had been expected for several days to reinforce the Tinajas Insurgents came into General Mosby's camp yesterday and it now forms part of his force. Insurgent scouts report that Col. Mayet's eighth battalion of federals left El Paso several days ago but nothing is known of its movements.

HIS LAST GAME

Casey Under Sentence of Death

CARSON CITY, Nev., June 5.—Patrick Casey, an old-time ball player who is under sentence of death for murder committed in Goldfield, yesterday, acted as umpire in what will probably be his last game at the state penitentiary. For some time two convict ball teams have been practicing within hearing of Casey's cell. After following the progress of the games by the crack of the bat and the thud of the ball in the catcher's glove, Casey appealed to the warden for the privilege of seeing and umpiring one more game. He was allowed to do so. Although many changes have been made in the rules since Casey played ball no kicks were registered against his decisions.

FATALLY STABBED

IN A ROW OVER A BASEBALL GAME

NEWARK, N. J., June 5.—A baseball game yesterday between semi-professionals developed into a fatal row over a close ninth inning finish. Joe Cronin, 25 years of age, of Belleville, was the victim. He was stabbed in the throat and his windpipe was severed. He died in an ambulance which was taking him to a hospital.

Nine of the alleged participants in the row were arrested, including Frank Cassidy, who gave his address as Springfield, Mass.

WOMAN MAY DIE

SHE WAS STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE

BOSTON, June 5.—Mrs. Edgar Hall, 60 years old, of Simons court, Malden, was struck by an automobile and probably fatally injured yesterday morning, while crossing the Mystic valley parkway. The automobile was driven by Mrs. Clara M. Gardner of 10 Sherman street, Everett. Both Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Gardner became confused, apparently. As a result, the machine struck Mrs. Hall, throwing her to the street. The wheels passed over her body, injuring her internally. Dr. J. E. Cleaves, who was passing in an automobile, took Mrs. Hall to her home.

COTTAGE BURNED

Fire at Mud Pond Last Night

The beautiful and well appointed summer cottage of Mr. Patrick Ryan, of 23 Westford street, and Henry Reynolds, located at Mud pond in Tyngsboro, was destroyed by fire between eight and nine o'clock last night. The cause of the fire is unknown and it is expected that the loss will be in the vicinity of $2500.

Several days ago Mr. and Mrs. Ryan went to the cottage to make arrangements for the summer occupancy of the house. They left the place early yesterday afternoon leaving everything in good shape, no smoldering fires, any light whatever. They reached home about 6 o'clock, and a couple of hours after received news that their summer home was burned to the ground. The blaze may have been caused by some boys, as there were many of them in the vicinity, either in the water or in the surrounding woods.

Fred C. Church carried the insurance on the cottage of Patrick Ryan and Henry Reynolds, destroyed by the fire last night at Mud pond.

Fire in Barn

An alarm from box 133 yesterday forenoon was for a fire in an old barn in Autumn street. The fire started on the roof of the building and unfortunely was caused by a spark from a chimney on a nearby building. When the fire men arrived on the scene there was a brisk blaze in progress, but it was extinguished before much damage was done.

Blaze in Cellar

A small fire in the cellar of a tenement building in Common street, near the junction of Salem street, was the cause for the ringing in of the alarm from box 1 yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. No serious damage resulted.

A Grass Fire

A grass fire near the Chelmsford Street hospital called out a portion of the department yesterday noon. No damage.

By Catholic Order of Foresters—Banners Were Blessed and a Street Parade Followed—3000 Men in Line

Lawrence, Mass., was the scene of a pretty gathering yesterday, the occasion being the blessing of the banner of Court Sacre-Coeur, 1410, Catholic Order of Foresters, of South Lawrence. There were delegations from Lowell, Lawrence, Haverhill, Salem, Cambridge and Nashua, N. H. The ceremony was held in the open air on a vacant lot adjoining Sacre-Coeur church, where a temporary altar and settees had been built.

lard Payette, Lowell, N. V. Marcotte, state high chief ranger; Camille de Champlain, Haverhill; Mayor John H. Cahill, Emil de Cherrau, F. X. Laramee, Dr. Mull, Cambridge.

There were over 3000 members of the Catholic Order of Foresters in line, and they presented a neat appearance with their gay banners. The military guards also presented a fine aspect. The long parade proceeded to the church, where the banner was blessed by Rev. Etienne Vinas, pastor of the church. The sermon was preached by Rev. Fr. Adolphe Rabel of Cambridge. About 5000 men and women attended the religious services which were held in the open air. The event came to a close with the benediction of the most blessed sacrament, Rev. Fr. Vinas officiating.

The parade then proceeded to Franco-American hall in Lowell street, where the visiting delegates were entertained by their hosts. The Lowell delegations entertained themselves in a hall in the same building, and a general good time was enjoyed till 7 o'clock when the special electric took them back to this city.

Courts St. Paul and St. Antoine of this city, as well as Council Campau, were headed by their chief rangers and president respectively, Messrs. Raoul H. Monier, F. X. Rivet and Frank Ricard. Guard Frontenac was in command of Capt. Albert Bergeron, Guard Jacques Cartier, Capt. Joseph L. Pigeon, and Guard d'Honneur, Capt. Joseph L. Lamoureux. The two former guards escorted the two courts, while the latter was with the council.

A number of the delegates were royally received by Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Riberty at their home, 48 Crosby street, South Lawrence, where they partook of a dainty lunch. In the evening a grand banquet was held at city hall, and about 250 people were in attendance. Dr. Emile E. Cyr was toastmaster, and the following responded: "Our City," Mayor John T. Cahill; "The Pope," Rev. Etienne Vinas; "The Clergy," Rev. Fr. Bergeron; "Our Faith and Our Language," Rev. Adolphe Rabel of Cambridge; "The High Court," ex-Alderman Simon Vigor; "Our Parishes," Rev. Etienne Vinas; "The Feast We Celebrate," Dr. Adolphe Payette, Lowell; "Good Fellowship," N. V. Marcotte, state high chief ranger; "The Press," Albert E. Roberg; "The Ladies," Dr. Mull, Cambridge. Rev. Fr. Watelle and Denzot, O. M. I. of St. Joseph's parish were present at the afternoon ceremony.

FARM WAGES

REPORTED BY STATE BOARD TO BE HIGHER

BOSTON, June 5.—The state board of agriculture is preparing its first report of the season. The report will state that farm labor has advanced in cost, the average now being $25 a month with board, as against an average of $23 a month last year. There will be a marked increase in the acreage of corn grown for grain and a slight decrease in the amount of potatoes. It is stated that, on the whole, farm help seems plentiful.

The board finds that vegetation was brought forward rapidly and the season was normal at the close of May. But early crops have been slow to germinate. Fruit bloom came all at once and the blooming period was very short. Grass started late, was pushed forward rapidly by hot weather, but later was held back by lack of moisture and is not what it should be at this season. Fall seeding appears to have suffered more from winter killing than usual, partly because of the open winter, but in many sections of the state it wintered well.

The fruit bloom was generally reported as unusually heavy except, in a few instances, for winter apples and more particularly the Baldwins. Small fruits generally promise well. There was no frost to damage after the fruit buds began to open.

Insects appear to be rather more plentiful than usual.

SHE GOES TO ENGLAND TO TEACH PUBLIC SCHOOL GARDENING

Mrs. Henry G. Parsons, who for years has been the moving spirit back of the public school farm idea in New York city, has sent her daughter, Miss Grace Parsons, to England to establish the farm garden idea in England. Miss Parsons is the author of many books for children and has been associated with her mother and brother Harry in school garden work.

COOK'S NOTEBOOK

BAKED KIDNEY

Put a lamb's kidney inside a large Spanish onion, place in a well buttered dish in the oven and bake until the onion is well cooked. The moisture from the onion will mix with the gravy coming from the kidney, and the result is delicious. A second dish should be inverted over the one on which the onion and kidney are baking to prevent them from drying.

DROP SCONES

Take two cupsful of flour, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one teaspoonful of baking soda, six teaspoonfuls of sugar and a pinch of salt. Mix these together. Switch one egg, to which add one breakfastcupful of buttermilk. Then mix all together. Drop a spoonful at a time on to greased frying pan and turn when a nice brown.

WHITE SAUCE

Use one ounce of butter, one ounce of flour, half a pint of milk, or milk and white stock in equal quantities, pepper and salt.

Put in the flour and cook it without allowing it to brown, add the liquid gradually and stir till the sauce boils and thickens.

LEMON FILLING

Work a little butter and icing sugar together until smooth and white, with a little essence of lemon added. Cover the cake with plain icing sprinkled with coconut.

NURSES OF TIME

ARE THE WOMEN WHO ACCOMPLISH THE MOST

The women who accomplish the most are not those who work themselves to death for long stretches of time and then suffer the customary relapse. That is, indeed, the most foolish way of using up the vital forces, and sooner or later the wise woman comes to realize it does not pay.

It is the work which is divided up, which counts in the long run, and even the work which is done at odd moments. No one except the woman who is a good manager realizes how much can be accomplished in this manner. Novels have been written in five and ten minute spaces taken from a tedious day. Whole families have been dressed by means of sewing that was taken up for half an hour a day.

Men and women have educated themselves by profiting from the odd moments left by other labors in shops and factories. The whole history of success is one record of small amounts of time well spent. You know how men amass fortunes through saving even as small sums as pennies. It is even said truly that he who wastes dimes and nickels will never have dollars. Well, it is the same way with time. The woman who thinks nothing of wasting five or ten minutes will have an empty life to show in the end. She will not gain in development or in position in the world. She will live to learn that wasting time is indeed wasting money. The busiest people are those who have learned the power of planning their work of using up every spare moment to the best advantage. By using up the odds and ends of time that other foolish women throw away as useless they have it in their power to accomplish twice as much work and to do it twice as easily.

It is safe to say that when you see a woman sitting with her hands and her brain idle for ten or fifteen minutes at a time—unless she is actually resting from some exertion—she will never accomplish much in this world. She is a spendthrift of time.

FRENCH CRUISER ASHORE

HALIFAX, N. S., June 6.—The French cruiser D'Estres went ashore on the south side of George's island while entering Halifax harbor in a thick fog today but was floated at high tide, apparently undamaged. She anchored in the harbor.

EIGHT INDICTMENTS REPORTED

COLUMBUS, O., June 5.—The grand jury today reported eight indictments. It is not known how many are against members of the legislature. Rep. Evans of Stark county pleaded guilty to soliciting a bribe of $300. Judge Kinkead fined him $500.

PRISON REFORMER DEAD

MANSFIELD, O., June 5.—Gen. Brinkerhoff, who had an international reputation as a prison reformer, died at his home here last night. He was a former president of the prison congress and had been a delegate to several international conferences held in Europe. He was 84 years old and was breveted a brigadier general in the Civil war.

JUDGE HADLEY

Makes Rule About Seats in Court

Judge Samuel P. Hadley of the police court has decided that he will not tolerate persons who have nothing to do with the court occupying the chairs within the enclosure and this morning he ordered Probation Officer Slatery to eject all persons other than newspapermen and officers of the court, which includes lawyers, from the enclosure.

The judge, in speaking with the newspapermen, this morning, stated that he had stood for this nuisance as long as possible and in many instances he found that lawyers and persons who had business with the court had to stand while outsiders occupied the seats.

AUTO VICTIMS ARM FRACTURED

Two Believed to be Fatally Injured

LYNN, June 5.—Two victims of automobile accidents are dying at the Lynn hospital. Tony Servino, a lad of 11 years, was run down by an automobile driven by Henry Gaudet and sustained a punctured lung, from which hospital physicians say he cannot recover, and Patrick Keenan, a shoe worker, was struck and probably fatally injured by a machine operated by Dr. Charles E. Berry. He sustained a fractured skull, broken collarbone, fractures of both legs and of six ribs.

Young Servino was riding a bicycle when he was struck. Gaudet, who is a chauffeur employed by Benjamin J. Scully, picked up the unconscious boy and carried him to the hospital. While at the hospital Gaudet was placed under arrest and was later released under $1000 bonds.

The accident to Keenan happened on the Lynn boulevard. Dr. Berry, accompanied by Dr. E. F. Glavan of Boston, had just passed the Point of Pines hotel when Keenan suddenly stepped into the road and before the automobile could be stopped it struck the man. The two physicians carried their victim to the hospital and then gave themselves up to the police. They were released on their own recognizance.

Boys Dangle Chum Over Cliff

WAKEFIELD, June 5.—Enacting in real life an episode they had seen portrayed by moving pictures, half a dozen small boys tied a rope around the waist of four year old Louis Dingle and dangled him over the edge of a 30-foot cliff off Herbert street yesterday afternoon.

Louis did not care for the game and he began to kick. The rope broke and he fell to the bottom of the cliff.

When the boys finally managed to get assistance Louis was taken to his home at 52 Richards street. He had escaped with no greater injuries than a broken right arm and several bruises.

This is the sixth accident that has occurred at the cliff since a local moving picture house showed a man being lowered down the face of a ledge by a rope tied around his waist.

CAPT. BARROWS

Y. M. C. I. CHAMPS CAPTAIN

DAVIS A HEAVY BATTER

COMMISSIONER CARR

Leads the New England League in Batting

Magee Leads League in Run-Getting, With Moulton a Close Second—Barrows, Fluharty and Magee Batting for Over .300

The big jump by Capt. Roland Barrows of the Lowell team featured the batting in the New England league last week, the former White Sox slugging out 16 hits, enough to increase his average 55 points and push him from 12th place a week ago to second place today. He is virtually the league leader, as Pearson, who is four points ahead of him, has played in but 13 games. Larry Pratt tumbled off the top rung of the ladder and is now fourth, the veteran Burkett remaining in third position with a decreased average. Henriksen of Brockton made a bigger jump than Barrows. The Brockton flyer goes into the .300 class for the first time this season. He batted so well that he is now in seventh place. He is the first batter to make 50 hits.

Of the 25 leaders Worcester has five, Lawrence, Brockton and New Bedford four each, Fall River and Lowell three each, Lynn two and Haverhill none. There are 30 players batting better than .300.

Magee of Lowell has taken the lead in runs scored away from Moulton of the same team, Magee having 37 and Moulton 35.

There is still a triple tie for the lead in stolen bases, with Loberg of Brockton, Devine of Fall River and Carlstrom of Lawrence at the top, each with 13. Three others are tied for fourth place with 12 each.

Haas of Worcester lost the lead in sacrifice hits to Groh of the same team, the latter having 12. Haas has 11 and is tied with Carlstrom.

Harrington of Lynn now leads the pitchers as Warwick of Lowell dropped three games last week. Ward of Brockton is second, the first man to win 10 games.

The averages of the 25 leading batters and 10 leading pitchers, including Saturday's games, are as follows:

Worcester was bearded in its den by Lowell on Saturday by the grace of Wolfgang who pitched fine ball and was ably assisted by the other members of the team. Lowell did some effective hitting, but it was their work on the bases that counted. Huston was in the game and gave a good account of himself. He hit a home run and there was no routing. Worcester tried hard to make a Harrison finish but Wolfgang was there with the goods. The score:

DIAMOND NOTES

At Lynn today.
Home games, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday.

And now Tom Fleming admits that he forfeited the game to Lowell but pleads that he did it under duress, and that he thought his life was in danger, and that he didn't mean it.

Little Tommy Duffy, as small as he is, wouldn't make an excuse like that.

If the forfeited game stands we're surely on top. If not, we are practically on top.

Harry Huston is back in the game and now Spring will nurse his sore finger.

The Worcester Telegram expresses great surprise because Fluharty nailed a man at the plate on a fast single to right. Patsey, evidently has never seen Fluharty. Fluharty is one of the best throwers in the league.

In criticizing a certain Lowell rooster the Worcester Telegram says, "Lowell always manages to carry its own audience with it." It's a good thing for Lawrence that Lowell does for many times and off at Glen Forest and what ever they call that miniature playground in the water street, we have seen as many and more Lowell people in the audience than natives.

The following observations down to and including the reference to Supp. Lawrence, are some of Billy Peter's in the Worcester Telegram.

But for Catterson's misplay, Lowell would have been blanked. The umpire Walsh officiated and did a good job, although Lowell fans wanted a whole lot.

Phoenix two doubles and a triple. Lyster one triple, Kennedy one home run and a single. Pearson three singles. Carlstrom had a good chance to show his speed yesterday. He was on base five times and scored four times.

Lowell is an in and out club—fine one day and nothing can check them; the next day easy for the opposition.

Pearson made Lowell look like a lot of busboys yesterday. Warwick had poor control and could not find the plate at all in the early part of the contest.

After the game some unkind fan yelled out to Warwick: "Well good-bye old pal." There was a whole lot in that little salute.

Warwick is not going any too well for Lowell. Poor control is his biggest fault.

A number of Lawrence fans went up to see the game. They enjoyed the batting stunts.

Lowell had a big day Thursday, getting Haverhill for the record runs of the year.

Moulton was fanned yesterday in the third and he registered a useless kick.

Supp. Martin Conley and wife were in the grand stand to see Cousin Pat play.

Supp. Conley is our Martin, and "Cousin Pat" is Pat Crisman, first baseman of the Lawrence team and Martin's first cousin.

Burt Kelley, the North Andover boy, has caught on with Brockton. He is signed to do the backstopping for that club. Lavigne has been released by Mer. S. D. Flanagan, along with Mitchell, McIntire, who was secured from Haverhill. Kelley was with the Tri-State at the opening of the present season and he has been with Haverhill for the past week. Frank Connaughton thinks a whole lot of Kelley—Lawrence Eagle.

Somebody started a story that "Brockton" winner of the Brockton team is going to the Boston Nationals and the Lincoln Square boys went wild with delight, until someone asked, "When?"

In the Stony Brook league, Y. M. C. A. third team defeated West Chelmsford 5 to 0, and Pawtucket Blues defeated Graniteville, 9 to 7.

Y. M. C. I. CHAMPS CAPTAIN

Defeated Y. M. C. A. at Spalding Park

At Spalding park Saturday afternoon the Y. M. C. I. defeated the strong Y. M. C. A. team in a fast game by the score 10 to 8. Both pitchers were batted rather freely but the Y. M. C. I. team put up an excellent game in the field, while the association team feld rather poorly.

White and Scott furnished the fielding features, while Ducker and Scott were the stars with the bat.

This victory, which is the second this season over the Y. M. C. A. team leaves the Y. M. C. I. team in a class by itself as far as amateur baseball in this city is concerned. Next week they will meet the strong Ballardvale team at Ballardvale.

The lineup: Y. M. C. I.—White if, Buckley of, Brennan rf, Clark c, Marcotte ss, King 1b, Cawley 3b, Cashman 2b, Curry p.

DAVIS A HEAVY BATTER

Slated to Manage the Cleveland

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Harry Davis the captain of the Athletics and one of the most popular players in the American league, acknowledges that he is slated to become the manager of the Cleveland team next season. That Davis would eventually be placed in charge of some team in this league has been a foregone conclusion. The fact that he has been identified for many years with one of the most successful managers in the game is believed to qualify him for such a position.

If there is one man in baseball who has had the opportunity to learn the fine points of the game and the duties of a manager it is Davis, who under Connie Mack has proved a great success as field captain. There is, of course, a great difference between being the chief lieutenant of a man like Mack and being thrown on his own responsibility, but Davis should succeed even though he does not himself engage in the game.

Tom Flanagan of Boston wants another match with Freddie Maguire. They have met twice before. In the first bout Maguire put him away in two rounds. In the second at the Emory club Freddie took him too cheap and didn't train with the result that Flanagan showed a slight advantage and got the decision.

The bouts this week are:
MONDAY
Jack Dillon vs Young Erne, Munroe.
Sallor Burke vs Ted Nelson, New York.

Young John L. Sullivan vs Jim Young, Dublin, Ire.
Ray Brown vs Morris Bloom, Indianapolis.

DAVIS A HEAVY BATTER

Bill Collins Making a Fine Showing

BOSTON, June 5.—While Fred Tenney's Rustlers are the weakest team in the National league and have little or no chance to get away from the much despised cellar championship, still there are several shining lights on the team. Among them is Bill Collins, the clever outfielder. Besides being a brilliant outer gardener, Bill is one of the best batters in the National league. At present he is pushing the ball for a .350 hitting average. If Tenney had two more like him the chances are that the team would keep out of last place.

THREE HUNDRED ALIENS

surprised at what he saw is putting it light.

As early as 7 o'clock this morning a crowd of men had gathered at the court house. At 10 o'clock every seat in the court room was taken while the corridors and approaches to the court house were crowded. There were surely 500 men present for the most part working men who had asked off for the day, either as applicants for naturalization or as witnesses for men who had their second papers and desired to close the matter.

"Nationalities?" The law of naturalization says that all men of white or African descent may be naturalized and all men of white and African descent were present. There were Irish, English, Scotch, French, those Armenians, Portuguese, Poles and others of other races in regular Babylonian confusion, all waiting to become citizens of this great and glorious country without any undue expense. Many were under the impression that all the formalities would be gone through in a few minutes and that it was a cinch to become a citizen. When some of them were informed that it will still take two years and 90 days before they can look the registrar of voters squarely in the eye or promise a candidate their support at the polls they were exceedingly disappointed and did not hesitate to say so.

The process of naturalization in a few words is as follows: "After you are 18 years of age, you may declare your intention of becoming a citizen, and get your first papers no matter how long or short you have been in the country. Two years after you have taken out your first papers provided you are 21 years of age and have resided five years in the country and one year of the five in the state in which

Boston where they took up their first papers and finish their business."

"But that entails expense," came a chorus of answers. "This new court was to save that expense."

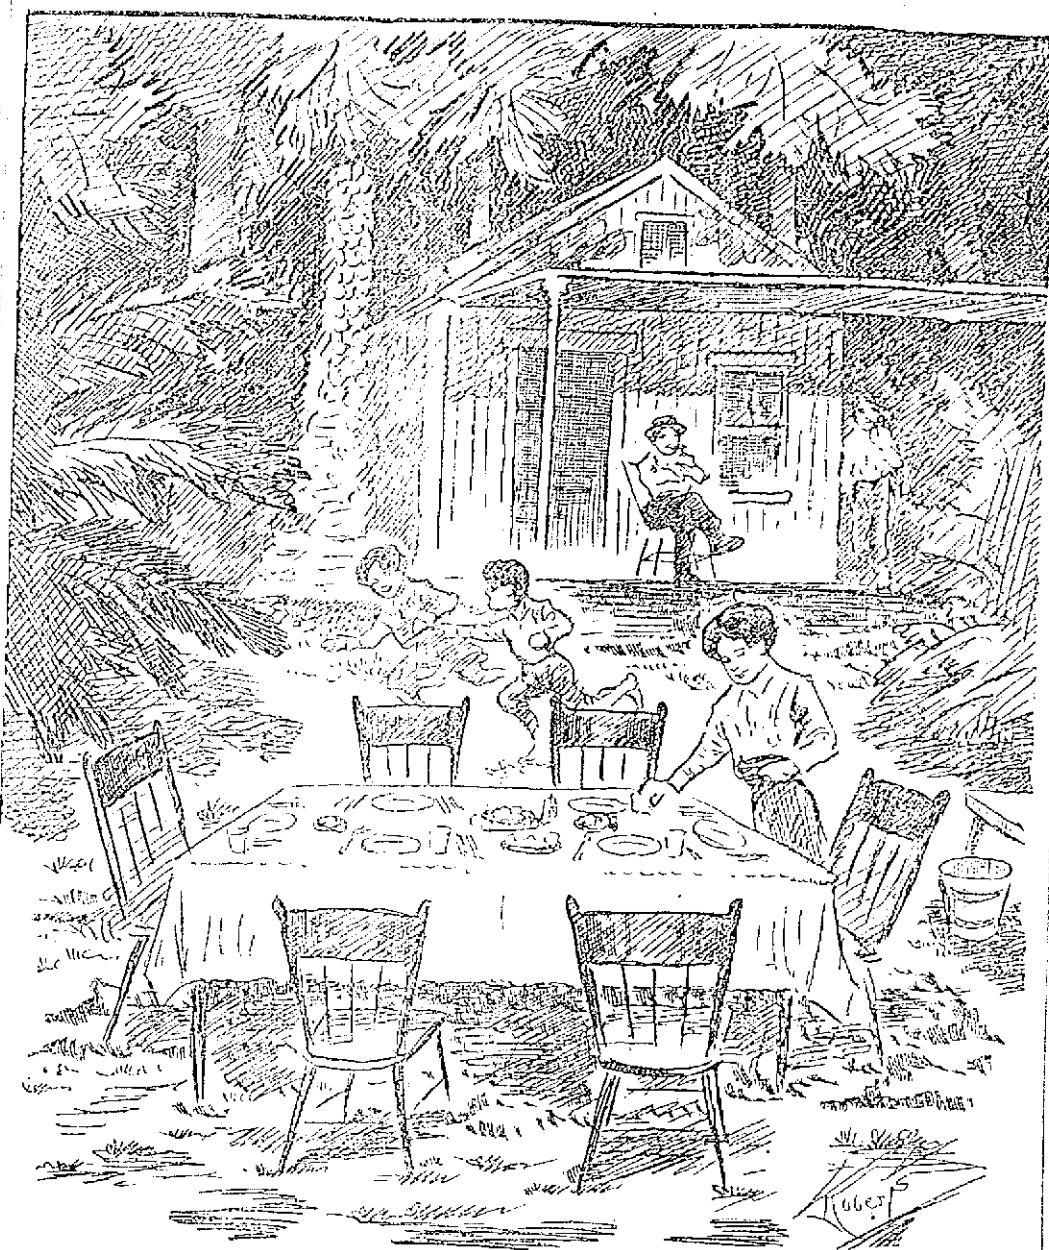

"But I can't help you anyway," answered the clerk, "for I have no second papers. I have made regularity on Washington and have not yet received any. I can come here later, some Saturday with the second papers, but I cannot do anything with you at the present time."

Then we are to be disenfranchised for another six months, cried a more. "I see it all; it's a political scheme to deprive us of our right to vote."

Then another man demanded to know if he could become naturalized on one paper, having come here at 10 years of age. He was quickly answered by Judge Conley, who informed him that he would have to get two papers. Another man demanded to know how he could have an error in his papers rectified.

At this point Alderman Connors got the floor and he said "Mr. Clerk, there appears to be a grave misunderstanding here. This session of court was brought about through an agitation started in this city to have sessions held here so that workingmen would not be put to great expense to get naturalized. I venture to say there are hundreds here who are losing a day's pay thinking that they were to get their second papers or to make their first visit. To find out I will call a poll of the crowd."

Alderman Connors then called upon all who had their first papers and were entitled to second papers to hold up their hands, and some 50 or more raised their hands. Then he called

CAMP SCENE ON THE BANKS OF THE MERRIMACK

The camps and bungalows along the banks of the Merrimack river on the north side between Lowell and Lawrence are more numerous this year than ever, and it is really refreshing to see how the people are getting out from the crowded city to enjoy the fresh air and the fine scenery in some of Nature's most beautiful retreats. Many of these camps are occupied only on Sundays and occasional evenings during the week, but they afford a great relief from the heat, the noise and the turmoil of the city.

derstand why they could not settle their business at once. The court is new to Lowell. Those who took out their first papers will get their second in due course of time in Lowell and will qualify as citizens in Lowell, 90 days thereafter, without the expense of going to Boston. Those who have gone through the preliminary stages in Boston must finish the work in Boston if they desire to become citizens this year or else wait the due process of the new Lowell court, which will prevent them voting in the state and city elections.

The session of the naturalization court when second papers will be issued will not come in at Lowell until September. Then the second papers will have to be on file 90 days before formal action is taken, which will go beyond this year's city election. But a man who has had his first papers two years, up to date may go to Boston any day and get his second papers, file them, wait 90 days, then appear with his witnesses and finally cast his first vote in this year's state election.

A CROWD OF FUTURE CITIZENS IN THE CORRIDORS OF THE COURT HOUSE WAITING FOR FIRST PAPERS

you desire to become naturalized, you may apply for your second papers. Then after you have filed your second papers together with papers relative to your two witnesses you must wait 90 days and then appear before the judge with your witnesses and formally become a citizen.

Now many of the men who appeared today had their first papers that had been given them two years ago and were present to get their second papers. Others with their second papers had their witnesses present expecting to be heard. All had given up a day's pay to finish the work of naturalization so as to be on the voting list when the state election comes around. When they heard that there was nothing doing unless they went to Boston they were wrought up and much unfavorable comment, some in strenuous language, was expressed.

At 10 o'clock promptly, Clerk Dillingham appeared on the scene and some asked "Where is the judge?"

"There is no judge coming," answered Clerk Dillingham. "I am simply here to take declarations and issue first papers. I have a limited number of first papers and will give them out."

In an instant his small desk in front of the judge's seat was surrounded by a big crowd, all trying to speak at once.

"Your honor," was the title conferred upon him by the crowd, many of whom thought he was the judge.

"I have nothing but first papers," repeated Mr. Dillingham, but the crowd didn't take much notice of him. Supt. Conley of the Chelmsford street hospital, who had come as a witness, Alderman Jerry Connors and Registrar Omer Allard got to the front. Likewise James Stuart Murphy got to the front and asked the clerk a number of questions in response to which Mr. Dillingham said: "I have come here simply to take declarations and it was announced that the court would be here to hear witnesses or take applications for second papers. There has been a misunderstanding. I would advise those who have second papers who desire to be heard to go to for applicants for first papers and 150 lifted their hands.

"The only thing I can do under the circumstances," said the clerk, "is to proceed to give out the first papers as far as they will go, and then come here later with more." He then left the court room and proceeded to his office while the crowd waited for him to come back. After quite a wait someone remarked: "For heaven's sake has he gone to Washington after the first papers, too?" Then "Judge" Connors again took the floor and said: "Gentlemen, those of you who are looking for second papers might as well go back to work as you can't get them today."

"I asked off for the day and I'm going to stay off, now," remarked one man, while another asked if there was a ball game in town.

MAN STABBED

IT IS SAID THAT QUARREL AROSE OVER MONEY

BOSTON, June 5.—During an argument over money matters, Emanuel Ebrahman, aged 38, married, and living at 3 Crawford street, East Water, was stabbed in the back at the home of Moses Feenikyan, 373 Western avenue, Brighton, yesterday afternoon. Oscar Israhian, aged 50, living at 19 Lathfield street, Brighton, is locked up at station 11 charged with the stabbing.

When Israhian was taken to the station house he was suffering from bad bruises on the head resulting, the police say, from being hit on the head with a chair in the hands of Ebrahman. The former was attended by Dr. Rice before being committed to a cell.

Ebrahman was attended by Dr. George E. McKee of North Brighton, who found that the man had two deep stab wounds between the shoulder blades. He also had cuts on the head, forehead and nose. He was sent to the city hospital.

The police say Ebrahman picked up a chair and struck the older man over the head with it. Then it is alleged Israhian grabbed a long knife from the kitchen table and stabbed the other man.

—Man Accused of Not Supporting His Wife Was Placed on Probation

This morning's session of the police court was a comparatively short one for a Monday morning, the different cases being disposed of in about half an hour.

Sent to the State Farm.—Celina Robert, an elderly woman, entered a plea of not guilty when charged with being drunk. Patrolman Linnam, who made the arrest, said that he found her in an intoxicated condition at her home in Adams street at midnight Saturday night. Patrolman Markham testified that he did not see the woman Saturday night but that he did see her drunk on several different occasions of late. Mrs. Robert testifying in her own behalf said that she had not lived with her husband for two years because she said he had abused her and failed to support her. Referring to her being drunk Saturday, she informed the court that she felt ill during the day and took two drinks of hot whiskey and that the liquor went to her head. Owing to the woman's condition Judge Hadley ordered her sent to the state farm at Bridgewater.

Present at Game.—Costas Cravates and Vasilios Nakas were charged with having been present at a game on the Lord's day and after pleas of guilty had been entered each was ordered to pay a fine of $5. The defendants and several others started playing cards Saturday night and the pair became so interested in the contest that they did not feel the hours slipping away and the first thing they knew several of the members of the police department stepped into the room and placed them under arrest.

Charged With Larceny.—Howard H. Haffkeny, through his counsel, J. Joseph Hennessy, entered a plea of not guilty to a complaint charging him with the larceny of a pool ball. At the request of counsel for the defendant the case was continued till Wednesday.

Neglected His Wife.—Maxine Bellefeulle was charged with failing to provide proper support for his wife. The latter said that her husband left her and went to work in another city and while he was gone she received no support from him, being compelled to live on the small wages given her by the board of charity. The defendant promised to provide for his wife in the future and therefore the case was continued.

A very imposing service was held at the Immaculate Conception church at 7:30 yesterday morning when a military mass was celebrated and was attended by the O. M. L. Cadets in full uniform. It was the seventh annual service of this kind and the church was crowded to the doors. The Cadets assembled at their assembly in the Immaculate Conception school and headed by their chaplain, Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. L. and Major Francis J. Haggerty marched to the church and occupied seats in the main aisle. The sanctuary of the church was beautifully decorated with the American colors. Immense American flags draped the rear and the side walls and smaller flags were to be seen in other places within the altar railing. The beautiful American flag surmounted by the eagle which was presented to the cadets.

MAJOR FRANCIS J. HAGGERTY

Received First Communion. Fifty-two boys and girls, varying in age from 7 to 9 years received communion for the first time yesterday at Notre-Dame de Lourdes church. The imposing ceremony was held at a mass celebrated at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Jean Lamotte, O. M. L., pastor of the parish. During the mass there was beautiful singing by the Children of Mary sodality choir, and an eloquent sermon was delivered by the pastor. All the children who made their first communion at Notre-Dame de Lourdes church this year, numbering over 200, will meet in the church on the third Sunday of the present month and will be enrolled in the sodality. Other imposing services will be held on the same day.

Rev. Fr. Barrette, O. M. L., officiated at high mass yesterday, and Rev. Fr. Magan, O. M. L., delivered a forceful sermon on the "Holy Ghost." The choir under the direction of Mr. H. A. Racicot rendered the Royal mass in plain chant, Miss Anna Alexander presiding at the organ.

St. Joseph's church. At St. Joseph's church the feast of Pentecost was observed in a fitting manner. The altar was beautifully decorated with potted plants and electric lights. Rev. Fr. Barrette, O. M. L., officiated and the sermon was delivered by the pastor of the church, Rev. Fr. Magan, O. M. L. The choir rendered the mass of the second tone under the direction of Mr. Frank Gourdeau.

St. Louis' church. Rev. Fr. Fortier officiated at high mass at St. Louis' church, and the choir. Olier J. David, director, rendered the harmonized mass of the second tone.

St. Jean Baptiste church. Rev. Fr. Bernache, O. M. L., officiated and Rev. Fr. Gratton, O. M. L., delivered the sermon. The choir repeated the Easter mass with Dr. G. E. Caisse as director and Mr. Arthur J. Martel at the organ.

There will be an important meeting of the board of charities this evening at 8 o'clock, at which time monthly bills will be approved and other business will be transacted.

Public Bath. The park commission will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock with the members of the special committee recently appointed by the city council to consider the erection of a public bath on the South common. The members of the bath committee are Aldermen Andrew E. Barrett, Alexander J. Rountree and Councilmen George H. Allard, Harry C. Taylor and John J. Coughlin.

Committee on Sewers. The committee on sewers, Aldermen Rountree, Jodoin and Daly, will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of the superintendent of streets. There are many sewer petitions awaiting the attention of the committee. It is probable that the committee will take a view of some of the places, and afterwards recommend the building of three or four sewers, the place where they are to be constructed having already been viewed by the superintendent of streets, the city engineer and the members of the committee.

Traffic Ordinance. The city solicitor has completed the official draft of the so-called traffic ordinance, and the same will be considered by the committee on ordinance and legislation, and in turn the ordinance will be submitted to the city council in the near future. The committee on ordinance and legislation is composed of Aldermen Jodoin, Flanagan, and Councilmen Allard, Chadwick and Connor.

Health of City. At the present time the city, so far as the board of health knows, has but very few cases of contagious diseases. There are but three cases of diphtheria under the official eye of the board of health, 10 cases of scarlet fever, and four of measles. There are no cases of typhoid fever or cerebro spinal meningitis. Agent Bates says that as compared with the same period for 1910, 1911 shows a great falling off in the number of cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever.

May Be Special Meeting. Mayor McLean had not decided this noon whether he would call a special meeting of the city council for Tuesday evening, but said he would make up his mind this evening, and in all probability that he would call a special meeting of both branches for tomorrow evening to transact such business as may come before them, especially the $10,000 for Shedd park, and the much talked about sewer resolution for $5000, and several sewer resolutions.

The Contagious Hospital. Dr. James J. McCarthy, chairman of the board of charities, was at city hall this morning looking over some matters pertaining to the charity board. When asked as to whether the board would take up the matter of the contagious hospital site this evening, he said: "I do not know. So far as I am concerned the matter is up to the city council. I think I have done my duty for the very best of my ability. I have explained the great advantages which the site I favor has over the other sites. The city council has personally and individually looked over both sites and they are fully as well informed now as they ever will be as to the relative merits of both sites. I am satisfied to leave the entire matter in their hands."

Sing Sing Prisoner Attempted

OSSENING, N. Y., June 5.—One convict gave his life today in an unsuccessful effort to save another from suicide by drowning.

Each morning at Sing Sing prison the convicts march in squads to the wall overlooking the river to empty their slop buckets. Today Antonio Guaro, a morose Italian, 53 years old, hurled his bucket far out and then leaped after it. That suicide and not escape was intended by him was very evident as soon as he struck the water, for he made every effort to sink. Three members of the squad leaped in after him but the current was too strong for two of them and they were hauled out exhausted. Ernest Sinclair, a youth, was the only one who reached Guaro's side. The Italian threw his arms about Sinclair's neck and, although the young man's fists beat on his face and breast, hung on and sank. The two bodies were found, Guaro's arms still entwined about the neck of his would-be rescuer.

Guaro had served several terms before. Sinclair was serving a three year term for abduction. Both came from New York.

The quartet then sang "Gathering Home," and "Abide With Me."

Report Filed on Lowell Charter
Bill Today

Fight Will be Made for Substitution of the Bill in the Senate Tomorrow—House Also Expected to Pass It—Senator Lomasney Filed the Adverse Report

Senator Lomasney, for the committee on cities of the legislature, this afternoon, filed the report granting the petitioners leave to withdraw. The report was put on the calendar for discussion tomorrow, and Senator Hubbard will move the substitution of the bill for the adverse report. He believes the senate will vote in favor of the bill by a substantial majority.

Rep. Barlow believes that if the senate passes the bill the house will do likewise, so that the bill may be referred to the people of Lowell after all. There is talk of calling an indignation meeting here in case the bill be finally defeated.

BOARD OF TRADE

Annual Meeting Tomorrow Night

The annual meeting of the Lowell board of trade will be held tomorrow evening at the rooms of the organization and a large attendance of members is expected, while many new members will be admitted.

This has been a year of unusual activity and results on the part of the board, and the reports of the officers will be of a most encouraging nature. During the year several new shoe shops have got under way in Lowell, while the board took a most prominent part in the work of getting the Boston & Maine railroad to locate its shops in Haverhill. The order of business at the annual meeting will be as follows: Call to order by Chairman Harvey B. Greene; admission of new members; report of the secretary for 1910; report of treasurer and auditor for 1910; reports of committees; election of officers for 1911; new business. Undoubtedly the new charter will be a prominent topic of discussion at the meeting.

Charles J. Callahan of Durant street, this city, will graduate from the law department of Georgetown university with the degree of bachelor of laws at the exercises to be held tonight.

The first session of a naturalization court to be held in Lowell, under the new law, was held in Lowell this morning.

It was the most extraordinary session of court held here within the memory of mortal man.

Who presided, is naturally the first question the reader will ask.

As far as the writer could see, Alderman Jerry Connors was the presiding officer, for he proved to be of valuable assistance to Clerk John Dillingham, who had the time of his official career.

Alderman Jerry presided and made the speeches. Lawyer James E. O'Donnell, Squire John J. McClure, armed with a volume of Van Dyke on Naturalization, and a street railroad conductor named Hogan, who had a little book entitled "Hints to Aliens on Naturalization," furnished the law, while several hundred disappointed men who had asked off from work with less of pay, thinking that their business would be attended to without further inconvenience, furnished the excitement.

All that Clerk Dillingham could furnish was first papers and then he didn't have half enough to go around.

The writer by the aid of Hogan and his "Hints" got into a cosy corner and in a few minutes gleaned enough law on naturalization to be able to get into the game until Lawyer O'Donnell appeared with a more complete knowledge of the law. As a matter of fact everybody was hopelessly mixed, not only on the law but on procedure.

Perhaps a little preliminary explanation is necessary to get the unsophisticated reader in touch with the cause of the trouble.

Up to 1906 naturalization by the police court was permitted but this power was taken away, and while the superior court had the power it held only two sessions a year, both at Cambridge, which necessitated a trip to Cambridge by the applicant for final papers with two witnesses, involving an expense of several dollars, not to speak of loss of time.

In the good old days the candidates for office would put up the money for naturalization but the law has since stopped that and for the past few years any Lowell man desiring to become a citizen was forced to abandon his work for a day, get two witnesses and pay their expenses to Boston or Cambridge.

This year, Rep. Marchand, at the request of a large number of French constituents desiring to become voters, introduced a bill into the legislature calling for a session of the naturalization court in Lowell. While the bill was proceeding through its regular processes, Judge Alken, chief justice of the superior court, is reported to have announced that sessions of this court would be held in Lowell henceforth, in June and September. This answered the purpose of Rep. Marchand's bill, it was supposed, and the bill was withdrawn. Then came the glad announcement that the first session of the naturalization court would be held in Lowell today.

But like naturalization itself, the naturalization court as evidenced this morning, is not retroactive, and hence the trouble when Clerk Dillingham presented himself.

That Clerk Dillingham was grossly Continued to page eight.

GARY OVERRULED

He Made Argument for Stability of Steel Prices

NEW YORK, June 5.—The arguments with which Judge Albert H. Gary, chairman of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation, addressed iron and steel manufacturers whom he had here as guests at a luncheon a week ago today to discuss the independent action of the Republic of Steel in reducing prices, because public today when Judge Gary made public the text of his speech, and threw more light upon what occurred behind the closed doors of the dining-room at the Metropolitan club where the conference was held.

Judge Gary argued for continued co-operation among the steel makers and for stability in prices, but his apparent wishes on the price question were overruled by a general decision to meet the needs of the Republic company. In the course of his remarks, Judge Gary touched upon the possibility of wage reductions, the value of fair dealing and frankness among the manufacturers, and the rights and duties of great corporations in view of the recent supreme court decision in the Standard Oil case.

Wants Stability of Prices

"I have advocated, and shall always advocate, so long as I believe I have a right to do so," said Judge Gary, "the stability of prices, the regularity of business conduct on the part of all that is calculated to recognize and advance the interests of others."

"I have urged you to remember and I again call attention to the fact that when you make substantial reductions in your prices, if you reduce to a price that is unfair and unreasonable and you make so small a profit that it does not yield you a fair return on your investment and your risk, you at least place for consideration before everyone the possible necessity of reducing the cost of production, including promptly, if not principally, the wages which you are paying, or may be allowed to pay, to the men or the women in your employ. Do not forget that the laboring men—the employees of the corporations—have more at risk, when these questions are considered of reducing prices below what is reasonable and fair, than the employer. You have no right to run the risk of being compelled to put their wages below what they ought to be unless you are driven to it, and I hope, under the present circumstances, gentlemen, that whatever may be done or whatever may happen as a result of present conditions, you will not reduce the wages of your employees until you feel it is an absolute necessity to do so."

The Republic's Bombshell

Referring to the bombshell which the Republic company threw into the steel market by reducing prices, Judge Gary said: "We are confronted with a very serious and disagreeable problem. It is not for me to criticize men nor to pass judgment on the motives of men. Whether people who have changed their minds suddenly are actuated by motives of expediency or motives of necessity is not for me to say. One thing we know that one of the leading iron and steel companies like those joining in our councils, learning from us our intentions, our business, our methods, our clients, our customers, everything of benefit and interest for one to know concerning his neighbor, has suddenly, for reasons considered good by those in charge, given notice that for the present at least it is not desirable to co-operate with us. I would not expect or ask anyone to do anything he believed wrong, legally or morally; but on the other hand, gentlemen, if anyone who has been co-operating in a lawful way, not in secret, but under conditions well known and frequently exposed by all of us, suddenly changes his position and believes it is for his pecuniary interest for the time being to withdraw from associating with us and declines to give us any information concerning what he is doing or proposes to do, leaving himself free to go to your customers and mine and get the business for himself, regardless of price, and simply for the purpose of filling his mill temporarily and securing for himself a customer who has been your customer or mine, then I do not hesitate to say that, so far as I am concerned, I am perfectly willing to let him stand outside of the circle of intercourse and friendly conversation and open and above-board fair dealing and frankness in expression but if I have sufficient influence, it shall not in the least affect the relations of all the rest of us."

Wants Friendly Relations

"In my opinion it is highly important for the long future that we continue our relations of friendship and open and frank expression with reference to what we are doing. Now, I do not know the feeling of the rest of you; I do not know what you are disposed to do. I think that so far as we are concerned we would be largely influenced by the action of the others; and while insisting upon the position from which I have never varied, I would not under any circumstances make any agreement, express or implied, direct or indirect, to maintain certain prices, to keep away from certain prices, to divide territory, to restrict output or to make any agreement of any sort or description with you or any of you, because, as I understand the law, I have no right to do it; yet at the same time, I would do what I have always said I would do, I would tell you and each of you at any time exactly what we were doing. I would give you the name of our customer; I would tell you what prices we were charging; I would give you any information concerning our business, concerning our mills, concerning our clients, concerning ourselves that you wanted to have, so long as you have the same disposition toward me."

"On the other hand, if it is your opinion that the time for co-operation has gone by or that it should be suspended, then we ought to find that out and we will all go our way, parting as friends, but at the same time separating entirely, which means that we will simply go upon our way, doing our own business in our own way, when, how and where we please."

"When demand was great and the capacity was insufficient, we have prevented prices from going higher, which is just as important as to prevent them from going too low. One is just as important as the other. We have never stood for unreasonably high prices any more than we are willing to have unreasonably low prices. What we advocate is stability of prices. We know our customers like that. We know it is better for the employees in every way. That is why I think it is of great importance for each of us to know all the time what the rest are doing."

In discussing, at the outset of his address, the Standard Oil decision, Judge Gary said that he disagreed with the statements of some people to the effect that the supreme court had modified the Sherman law and had read into that act the word "reasonable."

He said he was inclined to think that even if that were true the adoption of that view and conduct based upon it might result in very great harm to the business interests of the country generally.

"The supreme court, instead of saying that there may be a reasonable restriction of trade or reasonable monopolies," he believed, "intended to say that in the application of the law to the facts in a case there must be reason exercised."

If the business interests of this country generally should reach the conclusion by reason of the decision in the Standard Oil case, that the Sherman Act, so-called, has been overthrown, that it is not of any importance so far as our future conduct is concerned; that we are not obligated to go ahead on a right line; that we are relieved from the necessity of conducting ourselves in such a way as to evidence a regard for the interests of those with whom we come in contact—with our neighbors, with our customers, with our employees, with the public generally—that we may go on step by step, becoming worse and more unreasonable instead of better; we shall find that as a result and in the long run we will suffer by reason of such an attitude."

CENTENARY OF HARRIET BEECHER STOWE'S

BIRTH TO BE CELEBRATED JUNE 14

NEW YORK, June 5.—The centenary of the birth of Harriet Beecher Stowe will be celebrated in many sections of the country June 14. The relatives and admirers of the celebrated author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and other books will hold special memorial services in different cities. Particular attention will be given to honoring Mrs. Stowe's memory in cities where she spent periods of her long, active life, these being Andover, Mass., Hartford, Conn., Cincinnati, Litchfield, Conn., and Natick, Mass. Mrs. Stowe's son, Charles Edward Stowe, and her grandson, Lyman Beecher Stowe, have written a book entitled "Harriet Beecher Stowe—The Story of Her Life," which is being issued at this time in commemoration of her accomplishments. Charles Edward Stowe is a retired clergyman, and Lyman Beecher Stowe is one of the officials of the public service commission of New York. In the accompanying illustration is shown a scene at Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me., where Mrs. Stowe resided when she wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin." "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was begun as a serial in the National Era June 5, 1851, and completed April 1, 1852. Mrs. Stowe received the modest sum of $300 for her story. Before it was completed in the National Era she signed a contract with John J. Jewett, a young Boston publisher, to bring it out in book form. This contract was dated March 13, 1852, and the book was published March 29 of the same year. By the terms of this contract Mrs. Stowe was to receive a 10 per cent. royalty on all copies sold. Her first royalty check was for $10,000. She might have had half profits, but the future of the book was considered so doubtful and the risk in its publication so great that her husband and other advisers urged her to accept the 10 per cent. offer and incur no risk. Professor Stowe, her husband, is reported to have said: "It is a very unpopular subject, and I doubt if the book has a large sale. I shall be abundantly satisfied if you get enough out of it to buy a new silk dress." It has been estimated that over a million copies have been sold in the United States and over a million and a half in Great Britain and the colonies. It has been translated forty times, and we may safely estimate that in all 3,000,000 copies of the book have been sold. If Mrs. Stowe had received 1 cent per copy on this enormous circulation of her book she would have had a modest fortune, but she actually received but little.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

The feast of Pentecost was observed yesterday in St. John's church and first communion was received by a class of 75 boys and 55 girls between the ages of 8 and 14 years. Both masses were celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Schofield. At the second mass the children received communion and they occupied the front pews in the main part of the church. The girls were dressed in white with veils and the boys wore black suits with a white pink and ribbon. Previous to the mass the children sang hymns in honor of the blessed sacrament, which added to the impressiveness of the ceremony. At the communion the boys of the Training school who received their communion Tuesday sang hymns. The church was crowded, as many of the parents were in attendance to receive communion with the children. Fr. Schofield spoke to the children on the importance of making a good first communion and to always remember the day they received the body and blood of Christ in the Holy Eucharist for the first time, for it was the most important of all days. He urged the children to lead good, holy and pure lives for he knew there was never a class of children better instructed than the present class by the good Sisters of Notre Dame and Fr. Doherty. A sermon on the gospel of the day was preached. Announcement was made that the devotion of the forty hours would open next Sunday morning at the 9.30 mass when a procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will take place.

The time for making the Easter duty will close next Sunday, and Fr. Schofield hoped all those who have not attended to this important duty would do so at once. He has been pleased with the attendance of the parishioners but hoped that all who have not done so would not let the duty go by.

The members of the parish were also requested to attend a meeting in the church Tuesday night at 7.30 to make arrangements for the annual picnic.

Yesterday afternoon the children who received first communion in the

A meeting of the Immaculate Conception Sodality was held last night in the church at 6.45, and there was a very large attendance.

Impressive instructions were given by Fr. Doherty on the "Miracle of Our Lady of Lourdes."

CENTRAL FIGURES IN LIBEL SUIT FOR HALF A MILLION DOLLARS

NEW YORK, June 5.—William Randolph Hearst, proprietor of the New York Journal, through his attorney, Clarence J. Shearn, has brought suit for libel for $500,000 against Robert J. Collier, proprietor of Collier's Weekly, because of an article appearing in that magazine which says in part: "Every manager knew that the Journal offered a page advertisement and a Brisbane editorial for $10,000. Brisbane is an employee. Whatever blame there is in this policy must rest on Hearst." The issue in which this article appears also has for its complaint that the attack on him is the outcome of a legal dispute in which Collier's sued him for alleged breach of contract and for which settlement was urged, though it never came to trial, although Mr. Hearst claims to have been willing to go to trial with the suit. Failing to settle what he claimed to be an unjust demand, Hearst alleges that Collier employed Will Edwin to write attacks on him and that the paragraph referred to was written to injure him.

NIGHT EDITION ORGAN DEDICATED TODAY'S STOCK MARKET

THE 44 HOUR WEEK

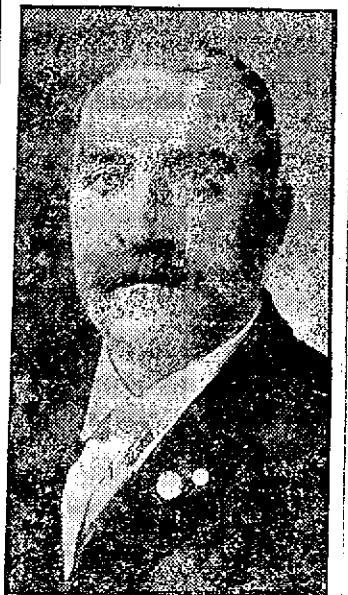

Conceded to the Local Carpenters' Union by Contractors

This Removes All Chance of a Strike and Gives Assurance of Security to the Contractors Figuring on Jobs

The building contractors and carpenters came to an agreement yesterday, when at a largely attended meeting of locals 49 and 1610 of the Carpenters' union, held yesterday afternoon at Carpenters' hall, Runels building, it was unanimously voted to accept the offer of the 44-hour week which the contractors voted to grant last week.

This bit of news will be welcomed by a large number of people who feared a strike in this city. It means a big increase in the building line, for many who were anticipating trouble of some sort, and who at the same time were anxious to build, but who did not dare to start work on account of the trouble existing between the contractors and the carpenters, will now get busy, and a big building boom is now expected during the summer.

Five or six weeks ago the local carpenters filed a request with the contractors asking them for a 44-hour week and an increase in wages of four cents per hour. The contractors took up the question last Wednesday evening, with the result that they voted to grant the 44-hour schedule as asked for.

MICHAEL A. LEE
Business Agent of the Carpenters

The members of locals 49 and 1610, Carpenters' union, held a meeting yesterday afternoon in Carpenters' hall, under the auspices of the district council, and was presided over by

P. A. BROUSSEAU
Presided at Meeting in Salem

District council No. 5, Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amérique, held an important meeting in Salem yesterday afternoon. The delegates from the different cities of the state assembled at St. Joseph's hall and then proceeded to St. Joseph's church, where high mass was sung by Rev. Fr. Rainville of Lynn, chaplain general of the union. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Fr. Cienfuegos, curate of St. Joseph's church.

After the mass the delegates returned to St. Joseph's hall where a dainty dinner was served under the auspices of Laurier council of Salem. The meeting which was a quarterly one was opened at 3:30 o'clock by President Pierre A. Brousseau of this city. Many important questions were discussed and considerable business was transacted. At the close of the meeting speeches were in order and the following made interesting remarks: Rev. Fr. Rainville, while proudly of Lawrence, Joseph F. Montminy of Lowell, A. Brochu and C. Thibault of Newburyport.

The next meeting will be held at Ipswich, Mass., on the second Sunday in August.

The Lowell delegates were Messrs. Pierre A. Brousseau, Adolphe Bouchard and Albert Marcotte of Council J. N. Jacques, Joseph F. Montminy and Joseph Carrier of Cassillon council.

SECRETARY KNOX

ORDERED TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE ON EXPENDITURES

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Secretary of State Knox, in spite of the administration's refusal to make public the documents, has been served with a subpoena to appear Wednesday before the committee on expenditures in the state department and to procure all books and papers in any way affecting the $1600 unaccounted for in connection with the purchase of a portrait of former Secretary of State Day.

James McDonald, president of the council. It was one of the most largely attended meetings ever held in that hall, and it proved to be very interesting and enthusiastic.

The question under discussion was the acceptance of the 44-hour week which the contractors voted to grant last week. William J. Shield, national organizer of the union, and others discussed the matter at some length and finally a vote was taken with the results that all present voted unanimously in favor of accepting the proposition, and the question of an increase in wages was referred to the district council, to be acted upon at a future date.

This action on the part of the contractors and the carpenters means a lot for Lowell and the suburbs, for it does away with all efforts among the building trades for this year and probably for many years to come. The present district council being a very conservative and intelligent body of men will, no doubt, find a way to settle the question of wages as it has the question of hours.

Michael A. Lee, business agent of the union, is the man to whom comes a large part of the credit for the settlement of this question in an amicable manner. Mr. Lee worked hard to bring about an understanding between the contractors and the men and it is really due to his efforts that such a settlement was brought about, and if the other crafts of the city would follow the example of the carpenters and have a man as well posted and as good a worker as Mr. Lee to follow their affairs, many strikes would be avoided and general good for the community would result.

The working hours of the local carpenters which went into effect this morning are from 8 to 5 for the first five days of the week, and Saturday morning from 8 to 12. No work hereafter on Saturday afternoon, except in cases of absolute necessity when permission will be granted by the district council.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The senate finance committee today resumed hearing on the Canadian reciprocity bill, Herman Ridder, until recently president of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, being called to the witness chair. Mr. Ridder had not proceeded far when Senator McCumber of North Dakota started the committee by challenging one of his statements as an absolute falsehood.

Senator McCumber's action brought a quick protest from Senators Stone and Bailey, who declared that witnesses should not be insulted.

Mr. Ridder had made the statement that the newspapers of the country and the publishers association had not attempted to suppress facts and to color stories sent from Washington on the subject of reciprocity when Senator McCumber interrupted with his charge of falsehood.

Several senators insisted that Mr. McCumber's remarks should be struck from the record.

"If any witness appearing before this committee," said Senator Bailey, "were to imply that some senator had told a falsehood I would insist that he be struck from the record."

Mr. Ridder, in reply to questions from members of the committee, declared that he, as president of the publishers association, had sent out word to members of the association telling them that the reciprocity agreement was of vital importance.

"But I would not have favored the agreement," added Mr. Ridder, "if I had not thought it would be good to the whole country, independent of any interest in it as a newspaper publisher."

Mr. Ridder declared that, while he was in favor of reciprocity as a whole his reason as a newspaperman for urging its passage was that he might get out of the clutches of the paper trust, which he said was robbing the newspaper publishers of the country.

"Have you ever made an effort," asked Senator Bailey, "to have the paper trust punished by the department of justice?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Ridder, "I had 32 panemakers in New York indicted and they paid $2000 apiece. These were manufacturers of various kinds of paper, although it has not been possible to prove that a white paper trust exists. Mr. Wallack, vice president of the International company, swore before the Mann committee that there were no combination of any sort although reports were being made to him every month as to what the various mills of the country were doing."

"Would you be satisfied," asked Mr.

the question of wages as it has the question of hours.

At Polish Church in High Street

A musical festival of rare beauty was held yesterday afternoon at the Polish Catholic church in High Street when the organ was formally dedicated with a ritual and brief services. The organ was provided by the St. Cecilia circle of the church with an expense to the parish itself and is an excellent instrument. Rev. Fr. Oganowski presided over the exercises and Rev. Fr. Urbanowicz of the Lithuanian church was the officiating clergyman. There were also present several Polish clergymen from Boston, Nashua and Manchester, N. H. The organ was prettily decorated with the American and Polish colors, while the interior of the church was also decorated. The church was packed with members of the parish, the women and girls in the picturesque costume of their country.

Mrs. Hugh Walker, organist at the Immaculate Conception church, and Prof. Arthur Martel, organist at St. Jean Baptiste church, presided at the organ and alternated in playing selections to test the capacity of the instrument. Both organists spoke in glowing terms of the organ. The exercises opened with congregational singing of two hymns by all present, after which Fr. Urbanowicz blessed the organ. Then followed a delightful program in which the instrumental music was interspersed with vocal selections. John Dalton sang an "Ave Maria" and Mrs. Walker gave Milhard's "Ave Verum." William L. Cookin rendered a sacred song and a male trio, consisting of Messrs. Dalton, Cookin and Shea, rendered "Salve Regina." At the conclusion of the church service a delightful repast was served in the school hall, a caplighting feature of which was the singing of folk songs by the members of St. Cecilia's choir of the church. Messrs. Cookin, Dalton and Shea also sang at the banquet.

LOST A FINGER

Boy's Hand Caught in Box Machine

George St. Jean, aged 14 years, lost a finger of the index finger of his right hand and badly injured the left index finger, when both of his hands were caught in a box machine at the A. J. Foster shoe shop this forenoon.

The young man was working about the machine and his hands slipped right in under the sharp knives. He was removed to the Emergency hospital, where the attending physician performed the amputation of the right index finger at the first joint, and took several stitches on the other injured finger. St. Jean lives at 1 Manning's place, off Salem street.

THE U. S. SENATE

Failed to Elect President Pro Tempore

WASHINGTON, June 5.—In the absence of Vice-President Sherman, the senate was called to order today by Secretary Bennett and for the first time in ten days there was a renewal of the effort to elect a president pro tempore to succeed Senator Frye. After two ineffectual ballots the senate adjourned for the day without transacting any business. There was no change in the relative standing of the candidates. On the first ballot Senator Callaghan, republican, received 27 votes, Senator Brown, democrat, 25, and Senator Clapp, progressive republican, 7. On the second ballot Messrs. Bacon and Clapp each gained a vote due to the entrance of senators who had been absent during the first roll call.

"I want help during my lifetime," said Mr. Ridder. "I have not yet seen any trust magnates go to jail. I favor the measure so that I may buy paper in the open market. I do not intend if I can help it, to let the paper trust dictate to me what I must pay for paper."

Mr. Ridder said he was opposed to all trusts.

BACK IN HARNESS

REV. DR. SMITH BAKER RETURNS TO PULPIT

Rev. Smith Baker, D. D. of this city, pastor emeritus of the First Congregational church, is once more in active service, being now the acting pastor of the Second Parish Congregational church, Portland, Me. Some three years ago Rev. Dr. Baker retired from the pastorate of the historic Williston Congregational church, Portland, Me., despite the urgent requests of the entire congregation that he retain the pastorate.

Dr. Baker, however, would not yield, and his resignation was reluctantly accepted. Again, however, he is back in the pulpit.

A few weeks ago Rev. W. P. Slade resigned the pastorate of the Second Parish Congregational church and accepted a call to the church at Gray, and Dr. Baker was asked to supply the pulpit for a Sunday or two. He did so and preached with all his old time power. Dr. Baker is now referred to as the acting pastor and it is understood he may remain in that capacity as long as he will consent to stay and that he would be called to the pastorate if he desired.

Dr. Baker was for years one of the leaders in religious and reformatory work here. Rev. Francis Southworth, pastor of the Bethel Congregational church, is 56 and still preaches every Sunday and with his example Dr. Baker's friends insist that he ought not to think of retiring for a long time to come.

Dr. Baker is a striking personality. He wears a dark and large broad brimmed hat. He is a special favorite with young people and never, if he could prevent it, declined an invitation to address them. He is one of the recognized temperance leaders and will take part in the campaign for the retention of the prohibitory amendment. He preaches twice every Sunday and an important part of his work is his series of talks on religious subjects furnished for local papers.

DETROIT, Mich., June 5.—At least three lives were lost as a result of the electrical storm that swept through Michigan last night and wires are down in so many directions today that reports of the damage are incomplete.

Two persons were killed by seizing dangling electric wires in the street in a suburb today and a third was killed by lightning near Flint last night.

REGULAR MEETING

OF THE ALDERMEN WILL BE HELD TUESDAY EVENING

There will be a regular meeting of the board of aldermen Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, and the probability is that there will be no special meeting of the common council. There was some doubt as to the meeting of the board of aldermen tomorrow evening, but City Clerk Lynn's records show that at the last regular meeting of the board of aldermen Alderman Flanagan made a motion, and it was voted that the meeting of May 30th be omitted and as there was no meeting for that date the motion did not amount to anything, and hence the meeting tomorrow evening.

HUMANE SOCIETY

A sale in aid of the Lowell Humane society will be held in the carriage house and grounds of Mr. Jacob Rogers' residence, 285 Andover street, on Wednesday next, June 7th, from 3 to 5 o'clock, rain or shine. Music will be provided. The following directors of the society have charge:

Chairman, Mrs. F. E. Dunbar; Fancy table, Mrs. Joseph Smith; Lemonade table, Mrs. George A. Leachey; Cake table, Mrs. F. P. Marble; Ice Cream table, Mrs. E. E. Sawyer; Grab table, Mrs. Boyden Pillsbury; Candy table, Mrs. Meta R. Jefferson.

It is a number of years since the Humane society has made a general appeal for help. Funds are urgently needed, and everyone interested in the good work for children and animals which this society is constantly doing is cordially invited to be present.

STOCK MARKET

WAS FIRM AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Several Stocks Took a Jump in Final Hour—Buying of Atchison, U. S. Steel and Erie Railroad Prices

NEW YORK, June 5.—There were few marked changes in the opening transactions today on the stock exchange. U. S. Steel and Erie were the most active issues, the former varying from 1 1/4 above to 1 1/4 below Saturday's close in the first few minutes on sales of 5500 shares. The demand for Erie was unusually keen and the prices forced up 3/4. Canadian Pacific Consolidated Gas and North American also gained 1/4, while U. P. lost the same amount.

St. Paul, Northwestern, American Smelting and International Harvester were driven a point under last week's close and other stocks a substantial fraction. Subsequently Atchison was marked up briskly to 1 1/4, and the rest of the market hardened slightly.

Consolidated Gas improved 1/4, and Interborough-Metropolitan pfd 1/4. The demand for stocks was lessened today and the market exhibited a slightly reactionary tendency. It was evident at the opening that the volume of orders which had accumulated over the week end was not as large as had been expected and bear traders seized the opportunity to sell. There was also a considerable amount of profit-taking. The market withstood the selling after the first setback and made some recoveries. Speculators forced to the front in the second hour's trading. The accumulation of Consolidated Gas, which went up 2 1/4, was responsible in large part for the revival of pool activities in other issues. Electric stocks and some of the minor low priced shares were taken at rising prices. Brooklyn Union Gas, Westinghouse Electric and General Electric gained two points each. At noon prices were improving under the lead of the Hill issues, which were selling a point above Saturday's close. Bonds were firm.

After the industrial stocks had been pulled up to about a parity with last week's closing figures, the market slackened and speculation became dull. Special movements occurred in a few industrial stocks but the speculative favorites were without essential change during mid-afternoon trading. Underwood Typewriter jumped 6 points to 90.

The market closed firm. Several stocks which had not shared proportionately in the recent rise in prices were taken in hand in the final hour. Toward the close there was a general improvement, the buying of Atchison, U. S. Steel and Erie being instrumental in rallying prices.

Boston Market. BOSTON, June 5.—Although the Boston market opened with a firm tone it subsequently eased off in sympathy with the reaction in New York. Trading was fairly active.

and whilst afternoon and evening. The dances which will be a feature of this year's fair include the ball dance. The costume of this dance will be a short skirt, the dress lavender in color and draped with silver bells.

Miss Marion Heniz, handsomely attired in blue green will dance the Spring song. Also afternoon and evening will be given the Floral march in which 100 young ladies will march in different figures with ropes of pink roses.

Two persons were killed by seizing dangling electric wires in the street in a suburb today and a third was killed by lightning near Flint last night.

BALLOON RACE

Was Won by the University of Pennsylvania

BOSTON, June 5.—The University of Pennsylvania entry in the balloon Philadelphia II was yesterday declared to be the official winner of the first intercollegiate balloon race in history. Pilot A. F. Atherholt and his aid, George A. Richardson, in the prize balloon, traveled 110 miles and remained in the air a little over seven hours, winning both cups for duration and distance. Their nearest competitor was the Williams college balloon, Stevens 27, which won the 2d prize distance, covering 68 miles in 4 hours and 36 minutes. The "Boston" balloon, an entry from Dartmouth college, did not figure in the prizes.

Each of the balloons landed safely Saturday night in various parts of Massachusetts. All started from North Adams Saturday afternoon. Not one of the six passengers suffered the least anxiety, although the race was most sensational from start to finish. Each of the balloonists landed without a scratch.

STRUCK BY CAR

DORCHESTER LAD WAS RIDING A BICYCLE

BOSTON, June 5.—Alfred Cohen, 12 years old, of 213 Columbia road, Dorchester, was struck by an automobile owned and operated by James Hannon of 21 Glenway street, Dorchester, while riding a bicycle on Columbia road early last evening. The boy suffered internal injuries, it is feared.

Witnesses of the accident told the police Hannon was not to blame. The boy saw the automobile coming and lost his head, ending up by steering directly into the automobile's path. A woman in a passing automobile added to the excitement by screaming and then fainting when she saw the boy struck.

Miss Helen Holmstedt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Holmstedt, and Mr. Huntington Sanford of Dorchester were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 125 Fifth avenue.

The bride was becomingly attired in white silk and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alma Holmstedt, who wore white voile with lilac trimmings. The best man was Mr. E. T. Clark of Brooklyn, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Billings of the Unitarian church. The house was prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts.

A dainty lunch was served, after which they left for an extended wedding tour, including Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will be at home after July 1, at Belmont, Mass.

SIXTY INDIANS

Have Joined General Mosby's Force

SAN DIEGO, CAL., June 5.—A band of over 60 Indians that had been expected for several days to reinforce the Tia Juana insurgents came into General Mosby's camp yesterday and it now forms part of his force. Insurgent scouts report that Col. Mayot's eighth battalion of federals left Ensenada several days ago but nothing is known of its movements.

HIS LAST GAME

Casey Under Sentence of Death

CARSON CITY, Nev., June 5.—Patrick Casey, an old-time ball player who is under sentence of death for murder committed in Goldfield, yesterday, acted as umpire in what will probably be his last game at the state penitentiary. For some time two convict ball teams have been practicing within hearing of Casey's cell. After following the progress of the games by the crack of the bat and the thud of the ball in the catcher's glove, Casey appealed to the warden for the privilege of seeing and umpiring one more game. He was allowed to do so. Although many changes have been made in the rules since Casey played ball no kicks were registered against his decisions.

FATALLY STABBED

IN A ROW OVER A BASEBALL GAME

NEWARK, N. J., June 5.—A baseball game yesterday between semi-professionals developed into a fatal row over a close ninth inning finish. John Cronin, 28 years, of Belleville, was the victim. He was stabbed in the throat and his windpipe was severed. He died in an ambulance which was taking him to a hospital.

Nine of the alleged participants in the row were arrested, including Frank Cassidy, who gave his address as Springfield, Mass.

WOMAN MAY DIE

SHE WAS STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE

BOSTON, June 5.—Mrs. Edgar Hall, 60 years old, of Simons court, Maiden, was struck by an automobile and probably fatally injured yesterday morning, while crossing the Mystic valley parkway. The automobile was driven by Mrs. Clara M. Gardner of 19 Sherman street, Everett.

Both Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Gardner became confused, apparently. As a result, the machine struck Mrs. Hall, throwing her to the street. The wheels passed over her body, injuring her internally. Dr. J. E. Cleaves, who was passing in an automobile, took Mrs. Hall to her home.

COTTAGE BURNED

Fire at Mud Pond Last Night

The beautiful and well appointed summer cottage of Mr. Patrick Ryan, of 750 Westford street, and Henry Reynolds, located at Mud pond in Tyngsboro, was destroyed by fire between eight and nine o'clock last night. The cause of the fire is unknown and it is expected that the loss will be in the vicinity of $2500.

Several days ago Mr. and Mrs. Ryan went to the cottage to make arrangements for the summer occupancy of the house. They left the place early yesterday afternoon leaving everything in good shape, no smoldering fires, or any light whatever. They reached home about 8 o'clock, and a couple of hours after received news that their summer home was burned to the ground. The blaze may have been caused by some boys, as there were many of them in the vicinity, either in the water or in the surrounding woods.

Fred C. Church carried the insurance on the cottage of Patrick Ryan and Henry Reynolds, destroyed by fire last night at Mud pond.

Fire in Barn

An alarm from box 338 yesterday forenoon was for a fire in an old barn in Autumn street. The fire started on the roof of the building and undoubtedly was caused by a spark from a chimney on a nearby building. When the fire men arrived on the scene there was a brisk blaze in progress, but it was extinguished before much damage was done.

Blaze in Cellar

A small fire in the cellar of a tenement building in Common street, near the junction of Salem street, was the cause for the ringing in of the alarm from box 3 yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. No serious damage resulted.

A Grass Fire

A grass fire near the Chelmsford Street hospital called out a portion of the department yesterday noon. No damage.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY

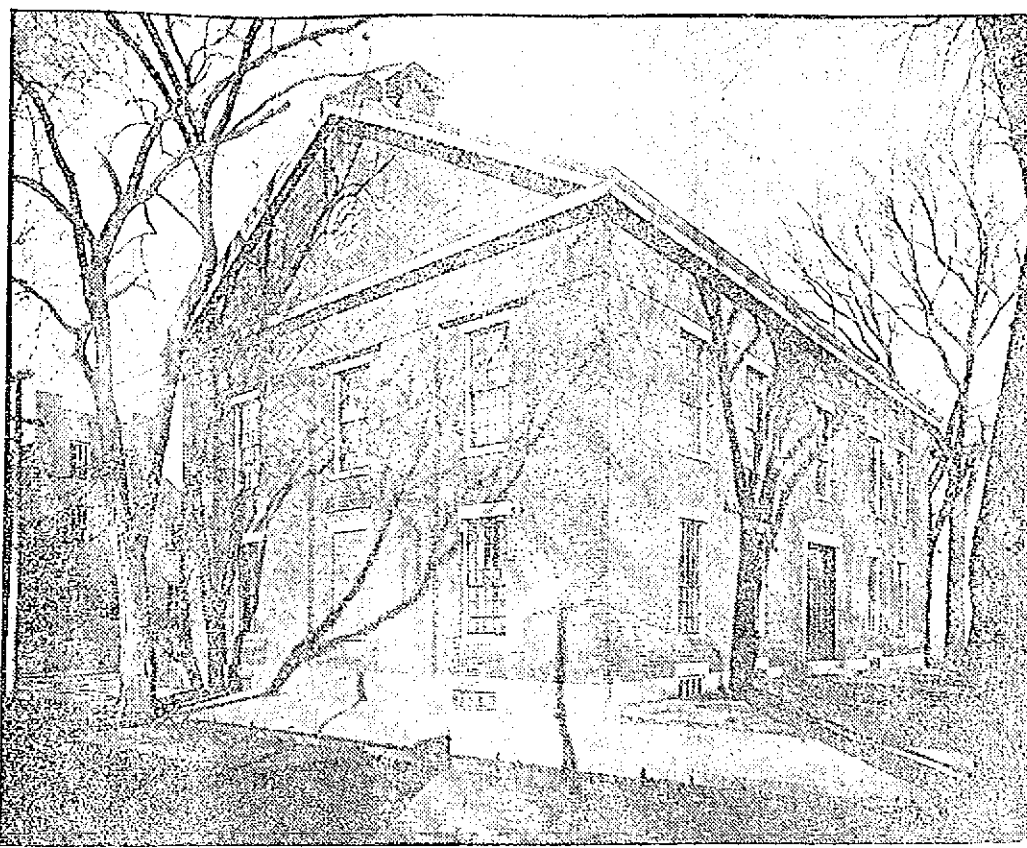

Woman Was Charged With Assault on a Man

Lucy Kleban, a young man, walked into the office of the clerk of the police court in the Market building shortly before ten o'clock this morning and informed the clerk that Katie Alexa of Davidson street had assaulted him Saturday night while he was trying to assist a friend of his removing some baggage from the Alexa woman's house.

According to the story told by the complainant he and his friend went to the house in Davidson street and when the friend attempted to take his trunk and other belongings out the Alexa woman started to beat him. The latter took to his heels and made his escape but Kleban was not so fortunate for it is alleged that the woman then attacked him with a heavy piece of wood with the result that Kleban, with his head and face covered with blood, was carried to the office of a doctor where six stitches were taken in a deep laceration in his head.

Yesterday Katie learned that Lucy was going to swear out a warrant against her and when she started for the clerk's office she was directly behind him and was waiting outside the door. After the complaint had been made out Katie got cold feet and was about to make her escape before the warrant was served upon her, but at the request of Lawyer J. Joseph O'Connor, who appears for the government, she went into court.

When the case was called in court the woman entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a continuance on the ground that she did not have any witnesses with her and inasmuch as she had voluntarily entered court the judge allowed the case to be continued, taking her personal recognizance.

OLD MANN SCHOOL BUILDING

STEEL TRADE IMPROVING

PITTSBURG, June 5.—A number of furnaces of the Carnegie Steel Co. and the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. which have been out of commission for some time were put in operation today. A large number of men were given employment. Prospects in the steel trade here, it is said, are better now than for months.

WEAVERS ON STRIKE

CONCORD, N. H., June 5.—The 60 weavers who walked out of the Suncook mills of that town Saturday morning remained out when the bell rang for work this morning and there is no immediate prospect of their returning. The walkout was caused by a cut of some 33 1-3 per cent. on certain classes of work, and the weavers declare that this must be restored before they will again enter the mill.

Agent H. J. Eckerson of the mill made a proposition to the weavers that they appoint a committee of five of their number to confer with the mill management but no action in this direction had been taken at noon.

COL. GARRARD REPRIMANDED

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Col. Joseph Garrard, U. S. A., commanding the cavalry post at Fort Meyer, today was reprimanded by the secretary of war under orders from President Taft for reporting adversely on an application of a soldier for the right to take examinations for promotion to commissioned grade on the ground of Jewish parentage. The president said that it was hard to deal with the matter "with patience and without condemnatory words that had better not be written."

END-SEASON COTTON CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, June 5.—The appearance of W. P. Brown, one of the prominent New Orleans bull leaders on the floor of the New York cotton exchange this morning was the signal for rumors that Mr. Brown had come here for the purpose of taking charge of an end-season bull campaign somewhat similar to that in which he figured last year when cotton during August sold at 20 cents a pound. Mr. Brown refused to discuss the possibility of a bull campaign but expressed confidence in much higher prices for old crop cotton. He said:

"I am very bullish on the old crop. The supplies of raw material and manufactured goods at the end of the season will be so small that both will practically corner themselves and next year a very large crop will be absolutely necessary for actual requirements and to fill up the holes. The new crop in nearly all sections is needing rain and the general public opinion continues to be that this crop is an early one, which is not the case."

ANCIENTS DAY SENATOR STONE

Was Observed in Boston Is Opposed to Reciprocity Amendment Today

BOSTON, June 5.—It was Ancients day in Boston today, the 273rd anniversary celebration of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company.

Many people knew it at daybreak for the drum corps marched from the armory to the various hotels, where the company's guests were stopping and sounded the reveille. The homes of officers of the company were similarly visited.

After breakfast in the armory in historic Faneuil hall, the Ancients and their guests went to the Old South church, where the anniversary exercises were held. Governor Fothergill of Rhode Island, Governor Meade of Vermont and Governor Foss of Massachusetts were escorted by General Samuel C. Lawrence. At the church R. L. Whitcomb of Portland read an appropriate ode.

It was a brilliant parade, for in line with the Ancients were the New York Veteran Artillery, the Old Guard of New York, the Governor's Foot Guard of Connecticut, the Worcester Continentals, the Bristol train, the Amoskeag Veterans of Manchester and the First Light Infantry of Providence, R. I.

When the parade reached Boston common it was reviewed by Governor Foss and his staff. Then followed the usual drummed election.

This evening there will be an elaborate banquet at the Ancients' armory.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—To Senator Stone of Missouri, President Taft again made it clear today that he is opposed to any amendment whatsoever to the Canadian reciprocity agreement. Senator Stone had heard the report that the administration opposition to the Root amendment was not entirely sincere and that Senator Root had been assured privately that the president would not be displeased if his amendment were adopted.

"I came to the White House," said the senator, "to find out for myself whether the president was in earnest in opposing the Root amendment and I found out. He told me that he was against the amendment proposed by Senator Root and would be against any proposed by any other senator, democrat or republican. That settles it for me. I am going back to the senate to carry the fight along those lines. Every true friend of reciprocity will do the same thing. If we begin by tackling on 'harmless' amendments we will end by destroying the good effects of the agreement altogether."

LOWELL OFFICERS WENT TO CAMBRIDGE TO TESTIFY BEFORE GRAND JURY

A number of members of the police department went to Cambridge today to testify in Lowell cases which are scheduled to be heard at the criminal session of the superior court in that city. Among the officers who made the trip were Supt. Redmond Welch, Capt. Thomas B. Atkinson, Sgt. William Groux and Patrolmen Roarke, Clancy, O'Keefe and Goggin.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Lowell Has Three Empty Buildings That Can be Used

The Scope of School Not Yet Settled, But Textile Work, Shoe Making, Machine Shop and Wood Work Will Undoubtedly be Included

The school board having voted to establish an industrial school in this city it would now be in order to settle upon what line of work will be undertaken. The policy of the state board of education is to assist those already occupied in various lines of industry rather than to teach trades to parties who are unemployed.

Neither the school committee nor Supt. Whitcomb can yet say just what the scope of the work will be. This will probably be settled at a conference between the school board and officials of the state board of education. This is a textile city and there will be undoubtedly an effort to assist the younger element of the textile workers to advance along the lines already taken up. We have also many shoe shops here and there may be an opportunity for some of the shoe workers to earn what they cannot learn in the factories. Then there will undoubtedly be metal work and wood work, but how these lines will be carried, of course it is difficult to say.

There will be no attempt to procure a new building at the outset although such a building would be essential later on. The school board has at the present time three buildings unoccupied in which different lines of work could be advantageously carried on. These are the old Mann school building on Broadway, the old Moody, corner of East Merrimack and High streets, and the old Bartlett on Clark street. An effort will be made to arrange with some of the mills or perhaps with all of them to allow minors to work part time and attend the school the other part. The part time plan is in operation in some cities and is enabling the young people to advance rapidly in learning whatever trade they have taken up. The work of the industrial school in this or any other city must develop gradually under skilful direction in order to be of the greatest benefit to the city.

THE GRAND JURY

Among Those on the List is That of Michael Patsiaouras—Several Breaking and Entering and Larceny Cases Will Also be Taken Up

The June sitting of the grand jury of Middlesex county opened this morning at Cambridge and on Wednesday, which is Lowell day, the jurors will come to this city to consider the seven cases in which probable cause was found by the lower court.

The principal case to be considered will be that of Michael Patsiaouras, charged with having murdered John Germanakos in a house in Brooks street several months ago.

Among the other cases are the following: Cornelius P. Cohane, breaking and entering and larceny in Billerica; Daniel Murphy and John J. Riley, breaking and entering and larceny; Frank Johnson, larceny from the person, in Chelmsford; John Pappas, Antonio Trapachas and Nicholas Zahos, breaking and entering and larceny from store in Hallowell; Charles Johnson, breaking and entering and larceny.

CARPENTERS' STRIKE AVERTED

MARLBORO, June 5.—A threatened strike of the union carpenters in this city was averted today by the granting on the part of the contractors of the demands made by the carpenters, which have been under consideration for more than a month. The men receive an increase from $3.38 to $3.60 for each eight hour day with a Saturday half holiday at the expense of the men.

SWAMPSCOTT, June 5.—Despondent because of continued ill health, Arthur W. Clapp, a wealthy bachelor of this town, committed suicide by gas poisoning at his home, 98 Humphrey street, yesterday. The facts were not reported to the police until today. Clapp lived with his mother, the widow of the late Albert Clapp. He had spent the greater part of his life in travelling and had no occupation. He was 43 years old.

When workmen arrived on the estate this forenoon they discovered that the residence was on fire, and within a short time the flames were beyond the control of the laborers. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

McMahon of New York; Alexander Johnson, secretary of the National Conference of Charities and Correction; and David E. Tilley, who presided, spoke in praise of the work done by the society's laboring Vincentians and discussed problems of charitable work.

More than 500 delegates attended, representing laymen and clergy of the country over. TODAY'S SESSION

BOSTON, June 5.—Following early mass in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross today, the delegates to the annual national conference of the society of St. Vincent de Paul, the great international Catholic organization, thronged Lorimer hall for the first conference session. The meeting was presided over by Thomas W. Hynes, president of the particular council of Brooklyn, N. Y., who read a paper on "The general field of preventive charity." John New, president of the particular council of Philadelphia, presented a paper on economy in the use of household supplies, after which the meeting was thrown open to informal discussion. The final hours of the forenoon meeting were taken up with discussion of the care of the sick, intemperance, instructing the poor in household management, tuberculosis and teaching habits of thrift.

In the afternoon the delegates planned to visit the various city institutions in Boston as the guest of Mayor Fitzgerald.

CELTIC CROSS WAS DEDICATED BY BISHOP LAWRENCE TODAY

NEWBURYPORT, June 5.—A Celtic cross erected on the site of Queen Anne church was dedicated here today by Bishop Lawrence of the Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts. This was part of the ceremonies held to commemorate the founding of Queen Anne church 200 years ago today. The services were held in Billville cemetery, where the church formerly stood.

TO COST $25,000 A SNAKE GOWN REACHES ROME

To Feed the Bay State Troops

Plans have been changed for the disposition of the militia in their maneuvers this summer and while the government urged a general muster of state and United States forces, in Texas, the complaints of the states which have to bear the share of expense was heeded and each state will hold its own muster, although the maneuvers, as planned, will entail a large expense.

Following the decision on the change of base for operations, the war department is to muster the Massachusetts troops, numbering 5000, in Essex and Middlesex counties.

Contracts have already been let for the supply of foodstuffs for the army. It is estimated that the expense, exclusive of salaries, will be $25,000. Some of the larger items on the list of rations include 20,000 pounds of fresh meat and 5000 pounds of fresh mutton, these to be delivered in daily requisitions at the various camps. The soldiers will have 500 bushels of potatoes supplied them, while 37,000 pounds of onions will be served by the chefs as a side dish.

A contract has been made for 27,000 leaves of bread, of the common variety, while 11,500 pounds of hard bread will be listed on the dinner cards. The state will supply 1000 pounds of raspberry jam to go with the bread. For those who do not care for jam about $200 worth of prunes have been ordered. The commonwealth can buy 1,000 pounds for $200 and this assures every soldier a dish of prune sauce every day.

The codfish will play an important part in the arrangement of the week's menu, 2000 pounds having been ordered. There will be 1500 cans of tomatoes and salmon each, 2500 pounds of canned corned beef and 500 pounds additional of corned beef hash canned. The men will eat 2000 pounds of butter.

Two thousand pounds of baked beans have been ordered.

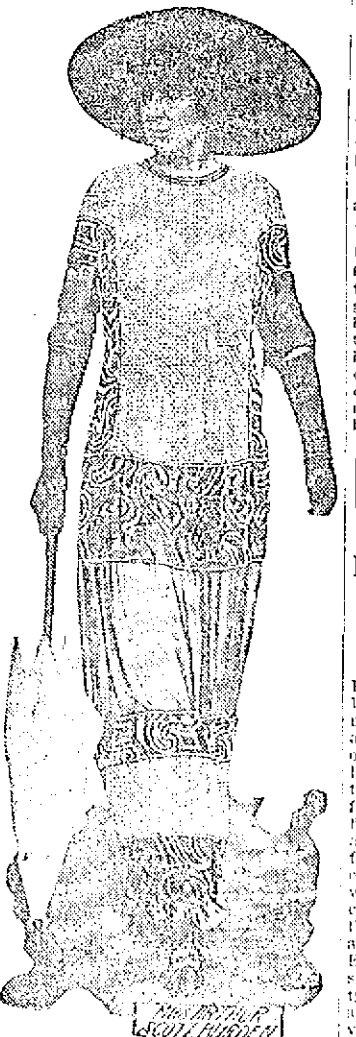

600 DELEGATES AT CONVENTION OF HOTELMEN HELD IN BOSTON

BOSTON, June 5.—"Mine hosts" to the number of 600 were in Boston today for the opening of the 32nd annual convention of the Hotelmen's Mutual Benefit association. Every hotel has an open house as guests from all over the United States and Canada were welcomed to Boston once more.

After a business session tomorrow the hotel proprietors, owners, managers and their families are to be received at the state house by Governor Foss. During the remainder of the week there will be luncheons, a monster banquet, amusements, a trip to New Hampshire, a train, a clam bake, a harbor excursion and a New England dinner and concert in the Berkshire hills.

Worn by Well Known Society Woman

NEW YORK, June 5.—The so called "snake gown" worn by Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, the popular young society matron, has created a sensation in New York's ultra fashionable circles, in which Mrs. Burden moves. Mrs. Burden was snapped by a photographer while wearing this gown at the international polo matches at Westbury, N. Y. The photo is reproduced herewith. The general effect of the gown and trimmings is to give a suggestion of snakeskin. The front of the gown is of long white lace and down the sides and back bands and spirals are arranged to give the impression of scales.

Vidart Ends Second Stage of Race

ROME, June 5.—Vidart, the fourth contestant to reach Rome, the end of the second stage of the 1905 Paris-Rome-Turin air race, arrived at 2:15 this morning. The aviator reached Orbetello, about 70 miles from the Italian capital on Saturday. On landing he partially wrecked his machine, one wing and a propeller being broken.

Vidart secured a new aeroplane and at 7:32 o'clock this morning ascended at Orbetello and flew direct to Rome, arriving there one hour and 33 minutes later.

Leprieux, a French aviator, arrived at Genoa at 6:45 a. m. The weather was magnificent, but the airman postponed his departure for Rome pending instructions from the aviation committee. The Roman committee telegraphically informed Leprieux that his passage over the Italian stage of the race would not be registered, as he was not regularly entered in the contest. Leprieux only asked that chronometer registration of his arrivals and departures along the route be taken.

LAUNCH ON FIRE

Passengers Were Badly Burned

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 5.—Noah Henline, centerfielder of the Buffalo baseball club, will be out of the line up today and probably for several days as a result of an exciting experience on the Niagara river. A canoeing launch in which he and a party of three others were returning to Buffalo late last night caught fire and the flames spread to the gasoline tank. In a few minutes the craft was ablaze, from stem to stern. Henline and the others were forced to drop over the windward side of the craft, where they clung to life lines until help reached them from shore. Henline was burned about the face and hands. Harry Eldring and his wife, and Miss Bradstreet, the other members of the party, also were slightly burned on face and hands. The launch, which was valued at $2500, is a total loss.

CAPT. BARROWS

Leads the New England League in Batting

Magee Leads League in Run-Getting, With Moulton a Close Second—Barrows, Fluharty and Magee Batting for Over .300

The big jump by Capt. Roland Barrows of the Lowell team featured the batting in the New England League last week, the former White Sox slugging out 16 hits, enough to increase his average 55 points and push him from 12th place a week ago to second place today. He is virtually the league leader, as Pearson, who has played in but 13 games, Larry Pratt tumbled off the top rung of the ladder and is now fourth, the veteran Burkett remaining in third position with a decreased average. Henriksen of Brockton made a bigger jump than Barrows. The Brockton fever goes into the 300 class for the first time this season. He batted so well that he is now in seventh place. He is the first batter to make 50 hits.

Of the 25 leaders Worcester has five, Lawrence, Brockton and New Bedford four each, Fall River and Lowell three each, Lynn two and Haverhill none. There were 30 players batting better than .300.

Magee of Lowell has taken the lead in runs scored away from Moulton of the same team, Magee having 27 and Moulton 36.

There is still a triple tie for the lead in stolen bases, with Lowman of Brockton, Davine of Fall River and Carlstrom of Lawrence at the top, each with 13. Three others are tied for fourth place with 12 each.

Haas of Worcester lost the lead in sacrifice hits to Groh of the same team, the latter having 12. Haas has 11 and is tied with Carlstrom.

Harrington of Lynn now leads the pitchers as Warwick of Lowell dropped three games last week. Ward of Brockton is second, the first man to win 10 games.

The averages of the 25 leading batters and 10 leading pitchers, including Saturday's games, are as follows:

BY BASE RUNNING

Lowell Took Game From Worcester

Worcester was bearded in its den by Lowell on Saturday by the grace of Wolfgang who pitched fine ball and was ably assisted by the other members of the team. Lowell did some effective hitting, but it was their work on the bases that counted. Huston was back in the game and gave a good account of himself as usual. Labelle umpired and there was no rioting. Worcester tried hard to make a Garrison finish but Wolfgang was there with the goods. The score:

Y. M. C. I. CHAMPS CAPTAIN

Defeated Y. M. C. A. at Spalding Park

At Spalding park Saturday afternoon the Y. M. C. I. defeated the strong Y. M. C. A. team in a fast game by the score 19 to 5. Both pitchers were batted rather freely but the Y. M. C. I. team put up an excellent game in the field, while the association team floundered rather poorly.

White and Scott furnished the fielding features while Backley and Scott were the stars with the bat.

This victory, which is the second this season over the Y. M. C. A. team leaves the Y. M. C. I. team in a class by itself as far as amateur baseball in this city is concerned. Next week they meet the strong Ballardvale team at Ballardvale.

The lineup: Y. M. C. I.—White 1f, Backley cf, Brennan rf, Clark c, Marquette ss, King 1b, Cawley 3b, Cashman 2b, Curry p.

Y. M. C. A.—Fahy 3b, Scott cf, Flinnay 1b, McVey 2b, Jodoin lf, Manning c, Johnson rf, Grunwoods, Walton p.

Innings:

DIAMOND NOTES

At Lynn today:

Home games, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday.

And now Tom Fleming admits that he forfeited the game to Lowell but pleads that he did it under duress, that he thought his life was in danger, and that he didn't mean it.

Little Tommy Duffy, as small as he is, wouldn't make an excuse like that.

If the forfeited game stands we're safely on top. If not, we are practically on top.

Harry Huston is back in the game and now Spring will nurse his sore finger.

The Worcester Telegram expresses great surprise because Fluharty called a man at the plate on a fast single to right. Patsy, evidently has never seen Flu throw. Fluharty is one of the best throwers in the league.

In criticizing a certain Lowell rooster the Lawrence Eagle says: "Lowell always makes a man at the plate on a fast single to right. Patsy, evidently has never seen Flu throw. Fluharty is one of the best throwers in the league."

The following observations down to and including the reference to Supt. Conley, are some of Billy Peter's in the Lawrence Eagle:

But let's not mention the mislay, Lowell would have been blanked.

Umpire Walsh officiated and did a good job, although Lowell fans wanted a whole lot.

Phoenix two doubles and a triple.

Luster one triple, Kennedy one homer and a single. Pearson three singles.

Carlstrom had a good chance to show his speed yesterday. He was on base five times and scored four tallies.

Lowell is an in and out club—one day day and nothing can check them; the next day easy for the opposing team.

Pearson made Lowell look like a lot of business yesterday. Warwick had poor control and could not find the plate at all in the early part of the contest.

After the game some unkind fan yelled out to Warwick: "Well good-bye old pal." There was a whole lot of that little salute.

Warwick is not going any too well for Lowell. Poor control is his biggest fault.

A number of Lawrence fans went up to see the game. They enjoyed the batting stunts.

Lowell had a big day Thursday, getting Haverhill for the record runs of the year.

Moulton was fanned yesterday in the third and he registered a useless kick.

Supt. Conley is our Martin, and "Cousin Pat" is Pat Crisam, first baseman of the Lawrence team and Martin's first cousin.

But Kelley, the North Andover boy, has caught on with Brockton. He has signed to do the backstopping for that club. Lavigne has been released by Mgr. S. D. Flanagan, along with Pitcher McIntire, who was secured from Haverhill. Kelley was with the Tri-State at the opening of the present season and he has been with Haverhill for the past week. Frank Connaughton thinks a whole lot of Kelley.

Somebody started a story that "Ducker" Wheeler of the Brockton team is going to the Boston Nationals and the Lincoln Square boys went wild with delight until someone asked, "When?"

surprised at what he saw is putting it light.

As early as 7 o'clock this morning a crowd of men had gathered at the court house. At 10 o'clock every seat in the court room was taken while the corridors and approaches to the court house were crowded. There were surely 600 men present, for the most part working men who had asked off for the day, either as applicants for naturalization or as witnesses for men who had their second papers and desired to close the matter.

Nationalities? The law of naturalization says that all men of white or African descent may be naturalized and all men of white and African descent were present. There were Irish, English, Scotch, French, Greeks, Armenians, Portuguese, Poles and others of other races in regular Babylonian confusion, all waiting to become citizens of this great and glorious country without any undue expense. Many were under the impression that all this formality would be gone through in a few minutes and that it was a cinch to become a citizen. When some of them were informed that it will still take two years and 90 days before they can look the registrar of voters squarely in the eye or promise a candidate their support at the polls they were exceedingly disappointed and didn't hesitate to say so.

The process of naturalization in a few words is as follows: "After you are 18 years of age, you may declare your intention of becoming a citizen and get your first papers no matter how long or short you have been in the country. Two years after you have taken out your first papers provided you are 21 years of age and have resided five years in the country and one year of the five in the state in which

"But that entails expense," came a chorus of answers. "This new court was to save that expense."

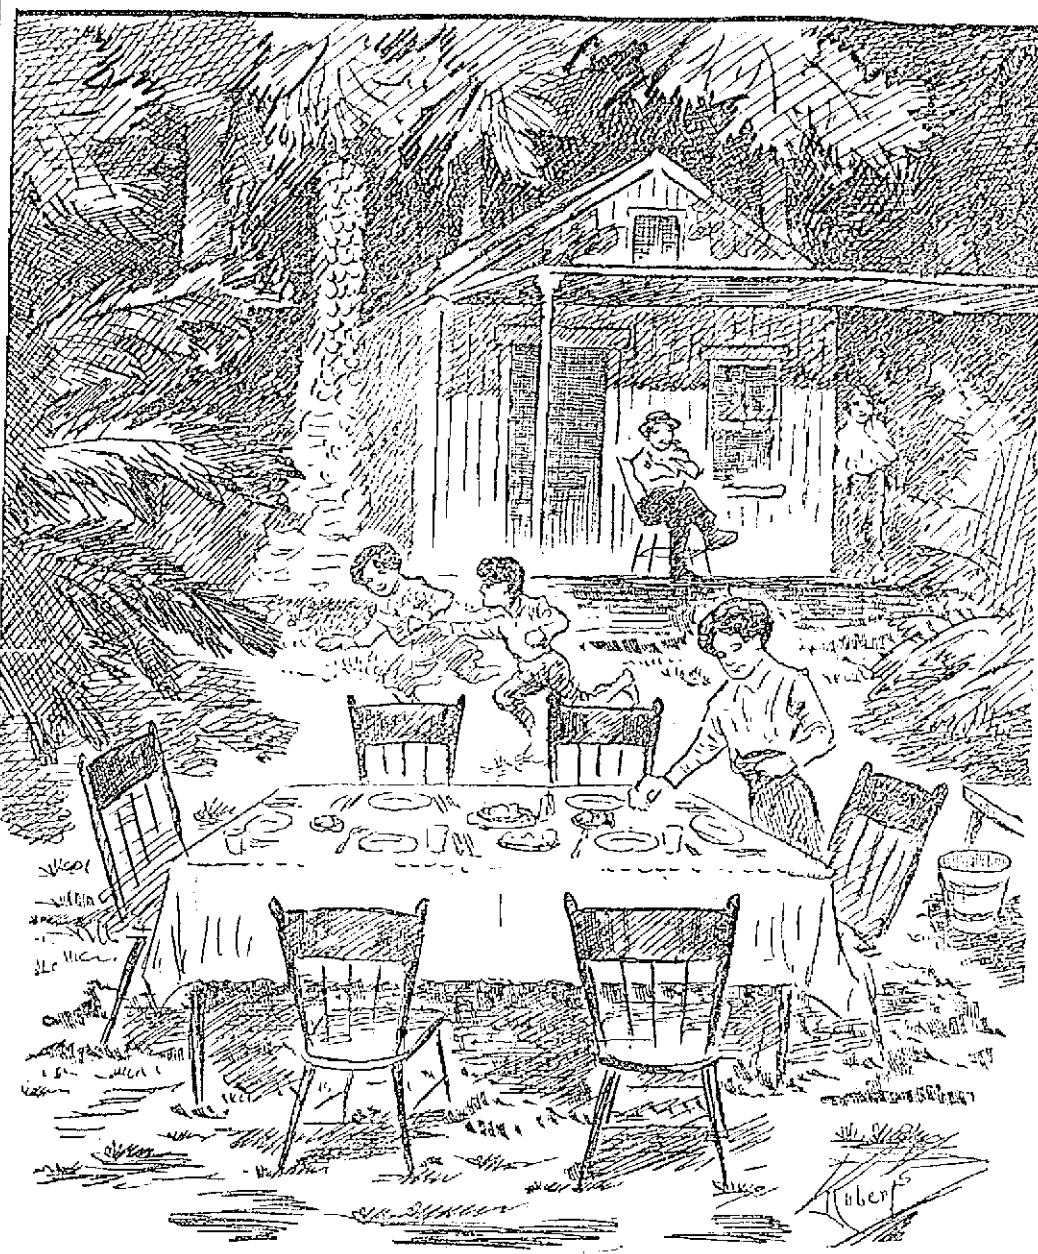

"But I can't help you anyway," answered the clerk, "for I have no second papers. I have made requisition on Washington and have not yet received any. I can come here later, some Saturday with the second papers, but I cannot do anything with you at the present time."

"Then we are to be disenfranchised for another six months," cried a voice. "I see it all; it's a political scheme to deprive us of our right to vote."

Then another man demanded to know if he could become naturalized on one paper, having come here at 15 years of age. He was quickly answered by Supt. Conley, who informed him that he would have to get two papers. Another man demanded to know how he could have an error in his papers rectified.

At this point Alderman Connors got the floor and he said "Mr. Clerk, there appears to be a grave misunderstanding here. This session of court was brought about through an agitation started in this city to have sessions held here so that workmen would not be put to great expense to get naturalized. I venture to say there are hundreds here who are losing a day's pay thinking that they were to get their second papers or to make their final visit. To find out I will call a poll of the crowd."

Alderman Connors then called upon all who had their first papers and were entitled to second papers to hold up their hands, and some 50 or more raised their hands. Then he called

CAMP SCENE ON THE BANKS OF THE MERRIMACK

The camps and bungalows along the banks of the Merrimack river on the north side between Lowell and Lawrence are more numerous this year than ever, and it is really refreshing to see how the people are getting out from the crowded city to enjoy the fresh air and the fine scenery in some of Nature's most beautiful retreats. Many of these camps are occupied only on Sundays and occasional evenings during the week, but they afford a great relief from the heat, the noise and the turmoil of the city.

derstand why they could not settle their business at once. The court is new to Lowell. Those who took out their first papers will get their second in due course of time in Lowell and will qualify as citizens in Lowell 90 days thereafter, without the expense of going to Boston. Those who have gone through the preliminary stages in Boston must finish the work in Boston if they desire to become voters this year or else wait the due process of the new Lowell court, which will prevent them voting in the state and city elections.

The session of the naturalization court when second papers will be issued will not come in at Lowell until September. Then the second papers will have to be on file 90 days before formal action is taken, which will go beyond this year's city election. But a man who has had his first papers two years, up to date may go to Boston any day and get his second papers, file them, wait 90 days, then appear with his witnesses, then go before the registrar and finally cast his first vote in this year's state election.

A CROWD OF FUTURE CITIZENS IN THE CORRIDORS OF THE COURT HOUSE WAITING FOR FIRST PAPERS

you desire to become naturalized, you may apply for your second papers. Then after you have filed your second papers together with papers relative to your two witnesses you must wait 90 days and then appear before the judge with your witnesses and formally become a citizen.

Now many of the men who appeared today had their first papers that had been given them two years ago and were present to get their second papers. Others with their second papers had their witnesses present expecting to be heard. All had given up a day's pay to finish the work of naturalization so as to be on the voting list when the state election comes around. When they heard that there was nothing doing unless they went to Boston they were wrought up and much unfavorable comment, some in strenuous language, was expressed.

At 10 o'clock promptly, Clerk Dillingham appeared on the scene and some asked "Where is the judge?"

"There is no judge coming," answered Clerk Dillingham, "I am simply here to take declarations and issue first papers. I have a limited number of first papers and will give them out."

In an instant his small desk in front of the judge's seat was surrounded by a big crowd, all trying to speak at once.

"Your honor," was the title conferred upon him by the crowd, many of whom thought he was the judge.

"I have nothing but first papers," repeated Mr. Dillingham, but the crowd didn't take much notice of him. Supt. Conley of the Chelmsford street hospital, who had come as a witness, Algerian Jerry Connors and Registrar Omer Affard got to the front. Likewise James Stuart Murphy got to the front and asked the clerk a number of questions in response to which Mr. Dillingham said: "I have come here simply to take declarations and if it was announced that the court would be here to hear witnesses or take applications for second papers there has been a misunderstanding. I would advise those who have second papers who desire to be heard to go to for applicants for first papers and 150 lifted their hands.

"The only thing I can do under the circumstances," said the clerk, "is to proceed to give out the first papers as far as they will go and then come here later with more." He then left the court room and proceeded to his office while the crowd waited for him to come back. After quite a wait some one remarked: "For heaven's sake has he gone to Washington after the first papers, too?" Then "Judge" Connors again took the floor and said: "Gentlemen, those of you who are looking for second papers might as well go back to work as you can't get them today."

"I asked off for the day and I'm going to stay off now," remarked one man, while another asked if there was a ball game in town.

Finally it was discovered that the clerk was giving out the papers from his office, whereupon there was a grand rush for the corridors. One man was allowed in at a time but men went in who had first and second papers, asking all sorts of questions until finally the clerk in his despair sent for Alderman Connors and after a brief conference the alderman came into the corridor and said: "Gentlemen! It's no use going in here unless you want first papers. Then after you get them you must wait two years until you take out your second. The clerk informs me that he hasn't enough to go around and has telephoned to Boston and will have more in an hour. He will remain here until 1:30 and if everyone has not received his by that time he will come again in three weeks with more. He will inform the press so that you will all know. The first papers must go along for two years. Those who have second papers must file them 90 days before they will be heard by the court."

Meanwhile the crowd waited patiently for the extra papers to come to Lowell, while the lawyers above mentioned who appeared on the scene were kept busy explaining why the clerk could accept only declarations. The applicants couldn't seem to un-

There were over 3000 members of the Catholic Order of Foresters in line, and they presented a neat appearance with their gay banners. The military bands also presented a fine aspect. The long parade proceeded to the church, where the banner was blessed by Rev. Fr. Etienne Vinas, pastor of the church. The sermon was preached by Rev. Fr. Adolphe Rabel of Cambridge. About 5000 men and women attended the religious services which were held in the open air. The event came to a close with the benediction of the most blessed sacrament, Rev. Fr. Vinas officiating.

The parade then proceeded to Franco-American hall in Lowell street, where the visiting delegates were entertained by their hosts. The Lowell delegations entertained themselves in a hall in the same building, and a general good time was enjoyed till 7 o'clock when the special electric took them back to this city.

Courts St. Paul and St. Antoine of this city, as well as Council Campau, were headed by their chief rangers and president respectively, Messrs. Raoul H. Monier, F. X. Rivet and Frank Ricard. Guard Frontenac was in command of Capt. Albert Bergeron, Guard Jacques Cartier, Capt. Joseph L. Pigeon, and Guard d'Honneur, Capt. Joseph L. Lamoureux. The two former guards escorted the two courts, while the latter was with the council.

A number of the delegates were royally received by Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Ricard at their home, 48 Crosby street, South Lawrence, where they partook of a delectable lunch. In the evening a grand banquet was held at city hall, and about 250 people were in attendance. Dr. Emile E. Cyr was toastmaster, and the following responded: "Our City," Mayor John T. Rev. Frs. Wattelle and Denizot, O. M. I. of St. Joseph's parish were present at the afternoon ceremony.

FARM WAGES

REPORTED BY STATE BOARD TO BE HIGHER

BOSTON, June 5.—The state board of agriculture is preparing its first report of the season. The report will state that farm labor has advanced in cost, the average now being $25 a month with board, as against an average of $23 a month last year. There will be a marked increase in the acreage of corn grown for grain and a slight decrease in the amount of potatoes. It is stated that, on the whole, farm help seems plentiful.

The board finds that vegetation was brought forward rapidly and the season was normal at the close of May. But early crops have been slow to germinate. Fruit bloom came all at once and the blooming period was very short. Grass started late, was pushed forward rapidly by hot weather but later was held back by lack of moisture and is not what it should be at this season. Fall seeding appears to have suffered more from winter killing than usual, partly because of the open winter, but in many sections of the state it wintered well.

The fruit bloom was generally reported as unusually heavy except, in a few instances, for winter apples and more particularly the Baldwin. Small fruits generally promise well. There was no frost to damage after the fruit began to open. Insects appear to be rather more plentiful than usual.

SHE GOES TO ENGLAND TO TEACH PUBLIC SCHOOL GARDENING

Miss Parsons is the author of many books for children and has been associated with her mother and brother Harry in school garden work.

COOK'S NOTEBOOK

BAKED KIDNEY

Put a lamb's kidney inside a large Spanish onion, place in a well buttered dish in the oven and bake until the onion is well cooked. The moisture from the onion will mix with the gravy coming from the kidney, and the result is delicious. A second dish should be inverted over the one on which the onion and kidney are baking to prevent them from drying.

DROP SCONES

Take two cupsful of flour, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one teaspoonful of baking soda, six teaspoonfuls of sugar and a pinch of salt. Mix these together. Switch one egg, to which add one breakfastful of butter. Then mix all together. Drop a spoonful at a time on to greased frying pan and turn when a nice brown.

WHITE SAUCE

Use one ounce of butter, one ounce of flour, half a pint of milk, or milk and white stock in equal quantities, pepper and salt.

Melt the butter in a saucepan and stir in the flour and cook it without allowing it to brown, add the liquid gradually and stir till the sauce boils and thickens.

LEMON FILLING

Work a little butter and icing sugar together until smooth and white, with a little essence of lemon added. Cover the cake with plain being sprinkled with coconut.

NURSES OF TIME

ARE THE WOMEN WHO ACCOMPLISH THE MOST

The women who accomplish the most are not those who work themselves to death for long stretches of time and then suffer the customary relapse. That is, indeed, the most foolish way of using up the vital forces, and sooner or later the wise woman comes to realize it does not pay.

It is the work which is divided up which counts in the long run, and even the work which is done at odd moments.

No one except the woman who is a good manager realizes how much can be accomplished in this manner. News have been written in five and ten minute spaces taken from a toilsome day. Whole families have been dressed by means of sewing that was taken up for half an hour a day.

Men and women have educated themselves by profiting from the odd moments left by other labors in shops and factories. The whole history of success is one record of small amounts of time well spent.

You know how men amass fortunes through saving even as small sums as pennies. It is even said truly that he who wastes dimes and nickels will never have dollars. Well, it is the same way with time. The woman who thinks nothing of wasting five or ten minutes will have an empty life to show in the end. She will not gain in development or in position in the world. She will live to learn that wasting time is indeed wasting money.

The busiest people are those who have learned the power of planning their work, of using up every spare moment to the best advantage. By using up the odds and ends of time that other foolish women throw away as useless they have it in their power to accomplish twice as much work and to do it twice as easily.

It is safe to say that when you see a woman sitting with her hands and her brain idle for ten or fifteen minutes at a time—unless she is actually resting from some exertion—she will never accomplish much in this world. She is a spendthrift of time.

AUTO VICTIMS ARM FRACTURED

Two Believed to be Fatally Injured

Boys Dangle Chum Over Cliff

LYNN, June 5.—Two victims of automobile accidents are dying at the Lynn hospital. Tony Servino, a lad of 11 years, was run down by an automobile driven by Henry Gaudet and sustained a punctured lung, from which hospital physicians say he cannot recover, and Patrick Keenan, a shoe worker, was struck and probably fatally injured by a machine operated by Dr. Charles E. Berry. He sustained a fractured skull, broken collarbone, fractures of both legs and of six ribs.

Young Servino was riding a bicycle when he was struck. Gaudet, who is a chauffeur employed by Benjamin J. Scully, picked up the unconscious boy and carried him to the hospital. While at the hospital Gaudet was placed under arrest and was later released under $1000 bonds.

The accident to Keenan happened on the Lynn boulevard. Dr. Barry, accompanied by Dr. E. F. Gleason of Boston, had just passed the Point of Pines hotel when Keenan suddenly stepped into the road and before the automobile could be stopped it struck the man. The two physicians carried their victim to the hospital and then gave themselves up to the police. They were released on their own recognizance.

WAKEFIELD, June 5.—Enacting in real life an episode they had seen portrayed by moving pictures, half a dozen small boys tied a rope around the waist of four year old Louis Dingle and dangled him over the edge of a 30-foot cliff off Herbert street yesterday afternoon.

Louis did not care for the game and he began to kick. The rope broke and he fell to the bottom of the cliff.

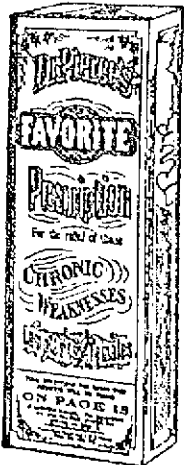

When the boys finally managed to get assistance Louis was taken to his home at 52 Richards street. He had escaped with no greater injuries than a broken right arm and several bruises.

This is the sixth accident that has occurred at the cliff since a local moving picture house showed a man being lowered down the face of a ledge by a rope tied around his waist.

DYNAMITE STORES

AND APPARATUS TO MAKE BOMBS WERE FOUND

SALONIKI, Turkey, June 5.—Big stores of dynamite and a complete apparatus for the manufacture of bombs have been discovered in a secluded den in the Kestirli district. The explosives were found close to the railroad over which Sultan Mehmed of Turkey will pass on a forthcoming tour of Macedonia.

GIRL WAS KILLED

Five Other Persons Injured in Worcester Joy Ride

MISS KATHERINE RYAN,
Of Worcester, Who Was Killed.

Katherine Ryan's Head Crushed
by a Telephone Pole—Her Sister
Was Fatally Injured—Auto
Was Wrecked Near Lake
Quinsigamond

WORCESTER, June 5.—An automobile joy ride, headed by John F. Quinn, aged 39, of 116 Eastern avenue, married and father of three sons, and one of the best known building contractors of Worcester, was brought to a sudden end at 5 o'clock yesterday morning against a telegraph pole in South Quinsigamond, Shrewsbury, with the following result:

MISS KATHERINE RYAN, aged 19, of 277 Pleasant street, skull crushed and killed instantly.

Miss Marguerite Ryan, aged 29, of 277 Pleasant street, back broken at eighth and ninth vertebrae, paralyzed from abdomen down; will die.

Mrs. William L. Rousseau, aged 35, of 22 Portland street, injured about chest and back.

John F. Quinn, aged 39, of 116 Eastern avenue, scalp wound and cut under left eye.

Frank Winchester, aged 37, steward at the Frohman clubhouse at Lake Quinsigamond, injured about left side of chest.

C. J. Green, aged 25, of Detroit, guest at Bay State house, left knee injured.

Miss Marguerite Ryan is in the City hospital, where it is said she cannot recover, but the other injured are able to be around town.

The Ryan girls are daughters of Dennis Ryan of 277 Pleasant street and are well known around town, as is Mrs. Rousseau, who has been employed as a waitress in Putnam & Thurston's restaurant.

Stories of the Accident

The fatality brought to an end a night of hilarity which was started about midnight from Worcester. The members of the party who are in a condition to talk will say very little about what preceded the accident and the stories about that conflict.

During the excitement immediately following the crash against the pole, Quinn, who owned and operated the big six center touring car in which the party was riding, told one of the road cue party that he was taking them down to Edgemere, a pleasure resort at the south end of Lake Quinsigamond, while he is quoted by others as saying the crowd was going to his summer cottage near the dam in Lake Quinsigamond.

Dr. John P. Moore, the ambulance surgeon, says Quinn told him the party left Worcester about midnight and enjoyed a ride around the circle, so called, through Millbury, Grafton and Shrewsbury, and that he left the main road just before he reached the lake and turned down South Quinsigamond avenue by mistake.

The other men in the party say that they had been at the Frohman clubhouse and in coming down from that place Quinn, instead of turning his machine to the right and coming into the city over the causeway, went straight down Quinsigamond avenue until he reached the first bend in the road. That is where the smash came.

Hilarity at Frohman's

It is known that the party was at the Frohman clubhouse shortly after 2 o'clock, because the big touring car was seen outside and the noise of the party singing inside the house was heard by one of the members of the club, who was taking a friend to the house, but who did not go in when it was seen there was a joy party there. Officers of the Frohman's say the clubhouse is supposed to be closed to everybody at midnight.

A little before 5 o'clock the sextet left the Frohman's house and the noise they made on the ride south from there awoke some of the residents along Quinsigamond avenue. The car was going at a tremendous rate of speed and its occupants were singing at the tops of their voices, according to Frank W. Pierce, who lives about 200 yards from the scene of the accident, on a knoll overlooking the lake.

The occupants of Henry Steinicke's cottage on South Quinsigamond avenue about 50 yards from the spot where the ride came to an end, were also aroused. The noise and a terrible crash, followed by absolute stillness for a few seconds, brought them all out of bed, because they realized there had been an accident.

Girl Killed by Pole

Mr. Steinicke was first on the scene, and he says the sight that met his eyes beggars description. The dead girl was sitting on the rear seat of the auto with her head crushed beneath a 10-inch telegraph pole. Her women companions were lying around in the brush alongside the road and the men were trying to pick themselves up.

Ground Will be Broken
About July 1

A persistent rumor is going the rounds in Billerica that the Boston and Maine railroad will break ground for the new repair shops on or about July 1 and will start a crew of from 1500 to 2500 men clearing off the land and digging the foundation. Some of the land has already been cleared but as the site includes 500 acres, a large territory demands attention.

Engineers of the railroad went over the tract last week and from what could be learned everything will be in readiness for the first of July.

ONE MAN KILLED

Several Injured in Runaway Accident

YOSEMITE, Calif., June 5.—In a stage coach runaway in the Yosemite valley late Saturday evening, a man was instantly killed and three women were seriously injured. Seven other persons sustained minor injuries.

Dead—RUBEN S. LEISENRING, Abertown, Penn.

Seriously Injured—Miss Martha Webber of Boston, arm broken.

Miss Diezenderfer of Boston, shoulder broken.

Mrs. A. Jaekel of New York, gash over eye.

The injuries sustained by the others were considerable. All were tourists.

The accident occurred on a steep grade between the Elz Tree grove at Wawona and the Elz Tree grove at Yosemite Valley.

The party, numbering 40 persons, and occupying four big mountain stage coaches, left camp Ahwahnee early Saturday morning for the trip to Awan, which was made safely.

At a steep grade the horses on the front stage became frightened and unmanageable. The brakes failed to hold and the team galloped down the winding roadway, with the stage swinging from side to side between a high bank and a sharp precipice, while the passengers screamed.

Convinced that he would not stop the animals the driver finally turned them straight into the wall of the cliff. The stage turned over completely and several of the passengers were caught beneath it. Leisenring was thrown clear, but struck on his head and was instantly killed.

The stages following carried the injured and Leisenring's body to camp Ahwahnee.

CUT HIS THROAT

KEENE, N. H. June 5.—Aaron G. Shackley of 314 Elm street took his own life yesterday by cutting his throat at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Annie A. Keene. A jackknife was used to commit the deed. Dr. Osterhout was called and later the body was viewed by Medical Referee H. K. Paulkner. He was 65 years old and had always enjoyed good health until last fall, when he was ill for several weeks. Since that time he has been mentally unbalanced, it is said. Yesterday morning he was about the house as usual, but did not appear well, and finally went to his room to be alone. Then, while those at the house were out of doors, he stabbed himself three times in the throat.
